Republican Chiefs Draft Declaration Of Principles

CHAIRMAN TO BE ELECTED WEDNESDAY

List of Eligible Candidates Narrowed Down to Five as Sessions Open

FOUR RESIGNATIONS

Seven Vacancies on National Committee Filled by Nominations from Floor

CHICAGO, June 5.—(UP)—The Republican national committee, having cut the list of candidates for party chairman to five "youngsters," turned today to the drafting of a "declaration of independence."

The party leaders, facing a crisis in their struggle to win back an alienated electorate by 1935, opened their formal session but there was scant hope of an agreement on a chairman to succeed Everett Sanders before tomorrow.

The formulation of a "declaration of independence"—laying the first planks of the 1936 platform and striking broadly at the Democratic new deal—overshadowed during the first sessions all open consideration of candidates.

Momentum for the drafting of the new Republican tenets with a sprinkling of liberalism came from Sen. David A. Reed of Pennsylvania. He said a declaration of "square deal" as opposed to a new deal was necessary to meet changing conditions brought about since the World war. The trends, he said, could be met only by a square deal.

Adopt Principles
"The Republican party should establish a precedent and adopt a declaration of principles for the campaign," Reed said.

The committee, undecided as to whether a dash of liberalism shall be sprinkled in the Republican broth, appeared to have narrowed down to five the field of candidates for national chairman.

None of the five, it was pointed out, bears the "big business" label or is remembered as a cog of the Hoover administration.

The likely quietest—barring, of course, the injection of a dark horse—was:

HEARST IS FREE TO SOJOURN IN FRANCE

PARIS, June 5.—(UP)—William Randolph Hearst, American publisher who has been barred from France since 1930, is free to visit this country, the United Press learned today.

The cabinet decided to inform Hearst that the expulsion order has been dropped. Andre Tardieu signed the order when he was premier, but waived any objections to its rescinding, although he is a member of the present cabinet.

The French government was reported anxious to rescind the order months ago and on one occasion sent an emissary to Hearst's California ranch, with a hint that France was willing to have him return.

Hearst thereupon snapped: "It was a French government which put me out. A French government must invite me back."

SUSPENDS LICENSE OF ORANGE SHIPPER

WASHINGTON, June 5.—(UP)—The House of R. E. Lott, Beverly Hills, Calif., orange and grape fruit shippers was under suspension for six months today, retroactive to June 1.

Lott was said to have violated his license by shipping oranges in interstate and foreign commerce in disregard to allotment, failing to report such shipments, and refusal to submit records to the distribution committee.

The AAA at the same time revoked the license of C. R. Montgomery, Pomona, Calif., citrus fruit shipper. He was said to have violated the license in nine instances, including shipping in excess of allotment, improper representation of shipments which caused the control board to issue excessive allotments, and refusing to submit records.

NEW GOVERNOR TAKES UP WORK IN SACRAMENTO

Must Handle State Problems in Addition to Making Campaign

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 5.—(UP)—Frank F. Merriam, California's new chief executive, prepared today to take up the reins of government and face the multiplicity of problems that have developed during the past few years.

Unemployment, a heavy treasury deficit, the liquor question, agitation for taxation changes and a hectic election campaign period are outstanding among the troublesome affairs to which Governor Merriam must give his attention.

Political observers agreed that Gov. James Rolph served during one of the most trying periods in California's history. And the major problems have remained unsolved. Merriam and the executive who holds office for the next four years will have important parts to play in straightening out the tangle.

Plan New Taxes
New taxes must be planned. There is a drive under way to abolish the sales tax, lower its rate or eliminate foodstuffs. An income tax is being advocated. Single tax proponents are active. The state treasury deficit, which will exceed $30,000,000 by the end of the biennium, may reach a fantastic height of $100,000,000 in 1937, unless new revenue systems are devised and government expenses trimmed.

Half a dozen liquor initiative measures loom for the November ballot. All may be adopted, with resulting confusion to a situation already admitted to be unsatisfactory. Legislative action will be necessary, observers believed, to work out a more popular plan of liquor control.

There is a growing feeling that a constitutional convention is essential to rebuild the state's unwieldy setup of fixed charges. Merriam is a staunch advocate of such a development, which would

TWO SAN QUENTIN INMATES MUST DIE

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., June 5.—(UP)—A jury verdict today condemned to death two San Quentin prison inmates because they took part in a jail break attempt in which guards allegedly were assaulted.

The eight women and four men who heard the unusual case returned a verdict finding Ethan McNabb, San Francisco yacht bandit, and William Bagley, former northwestern desperado, guilty on charges of assault. The same verdict acquitted George Fredericks and George Masters, other convicts, on similar charges.

The guilty verdict automatically carried the death penalty for McNabb and Bagley because they now are serving life terms for previous crimes.

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—(UP)—Possibility that county schools might be closed as a result of the infantile paralysis epidemic was discussed today by officials as 38 new cases were reported during the past 24 hours.

While supervisors argued the wisdom of releasing 300,000 children from their classes, school officials at Ontario, 35 miles east of here, closed all schools a week ahead of schedule.

The new cases in Los Angeles county brought the total for the first four days in June to 86 and the total since May 1 to 264.

Less than a dozen of the cases have resulted fatally.

BRUNS ELECTED TO COUNCIL BY CITY FATHERS

Resident of Santa Ana for 24 Years Succeeds Hasenjaeger, Resigned

PLUMMER BRUNS, 1411 Louise street and a resident of Santa Ana for the past 24 years, was elected a member of the city council last night, following the resignation of A. C. Hasenjaeger, member of the board since 1931.

Hasenjaeger assumed his new duties as executive vice president of the Commercial National Bank yesterday and resigned his council position because of insufficient time to devote to city business. His resignation was accepted with regrets and a resolution was passed expressing the appreciation of the board for the work he has done in behalf of the city.

In a short talk after the acceptance of his resignation, Hasenjaeger thanked the board for the pleasant associations he had known for the past three years and expressed a feeling of reluctance and regret in resigning. All the councilmen present lauded Hasenjaeger for his unselfish service on the council.

A. F. LeGaye nominated Bruns for the vacancy. E. G. Warner carried the motion, and it was carried unanimously. Bruns was elected temporarily to fill Hasenjaeger's position as street superintendent and thanked the councilmen for their confidence in him. He was given the oath of office by City Clerk Ed Vegely.

Bruns is manager of the McFadden-Dale hardware company.

RAIN, ONE OF THE heaviest downpours of the year, fell throughout Orange county last night and early today, generally benefiting agriculturists of this area and causing only slight damage.

Light showers began falling in Santa Ana around 10 p.m., and continued all night to give this city a .42 recording, when measured this morning, the highest since the .64 mark of February 24. Santa Ana previously this year received .40 and .41 rains, respectively, February 20 and 23, and the surprising total of 2.30 during the Southern California storm which started New Year's day.

Although it perhaps was the heaviest June rain ever recorded in Santa Ana and the majority of other communities, there was a slight decrease shown at Tustin, where .65 inches fell as compared with the record of .70 on the same date last season.

San Juan Capistrano received the greatest benefit from the current storm, with a mark of .75. The mission city recorded .93 inches on February 24.

Other high marks were at Huntington Beach, with .65; Talbert, .60; Newport, .43; Anaheim, .36; and Fullerton, .26.

TEN CONVICTS WHO ESCAPED CAPTURED

PARCHMAN, Miss., June 5.—(UP)—All but one of the 11 convicts who rioted and escaped from Mississippi state prison farm No. 10 here had been re-captured today. Clifford Smith, who killed his sweetheart a year ago, was still at liberty.

Andrew Lewis, robber-convict, was shot to death by guards in the break yesterday. Three others were wounded including Veto Brewer, a guard who received a bullet in his spine. Two prisoners received minor wounds in the general shooting preceding the escape.

Several weeks ago the United Press disclosed that Lloyd's men were doing a profitable business in writing policies indemnifying applicants against harm befalling the president.

Reports were that on instructions from Washington Ambassador Robert W. Bingham made representations to the government against the quotations.

BODY OF GOVERNOR ROLPH IS LAID TO REST IN GREENLAWN CEMETERY IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—(UP)—The body of Gov. James Rolph Jr. was laid to rest today near the graves of his pioneer parents in Greenlawn cemetery.

The members of the Rolph family claimed the late executive as their own today, barring a sorrowing public from the final rites held in the old-fashioned Rolph residence in the Mission district where he was born 43 years ago.

Only the family and a few close friends—the men who came with Rolph from the Mission 28 years ago to lead in the rehabilitation of a city stricken by earthquake and fire—were allowed to enter the home for the private service.

The Rev. Robert W. Ford, pastor of Holy Innocents Episcopal church, where Rolph worshipped when he was at home, officiated.

Lloyd Banks Sets Figure Of $465,845

Reveals Expenses for Last Fiscal Year $83,000 Under Year Before

REVEALING that municipal expenditures for the fiscal year just closing were $83,000 less than the preceding year, and that the proposed budget for 1934-35 is set at $465,845, or a decrease of $21,039.32 under that of this year, the tentative budget for the city of Santa Ana was submitted to the council last night by City Auditor Lloyd Banks.

In his explanation of the budget, Banks pointed out that the city was able to cut expenses this year by $31,000 and still include the unforeseen items not budgeted but, which were appropriated from time to time, including relief and CWA projects, purchase of property and equipment, chlorination equipment for the water department, police car and radio equipment, and other items.

Despite this unexpected expense of $26,135, the city was able to operate within the budget of $486,984.32 and show a surplus of $5811 at the end of the year, Banks reported. Eliminating the unforeseen items, the objective of the council in cutting expenses by $100,000 was really reached, Banks said.

Tax Levy Less
The total amount of the tax levy this year will be approximately $31,000 less than the past year, Banks said, based on the same rate with a 10 per cent decrease in valuation. If the valuation had remained the same, the tentative rate for 1934-35 would be $1.48, or a reduction of 17 cents in the tax rate. However, when the valuations decrease, expenditures must be reduced or other means of income secured. The proposed budget is based on a reduction in expenditures to attain this end.

The proposed budget includes salaries, fixed charges, capital outlay, but does not include any allowance for possible requirements to meet improvement, delinquencies, maintenance of equipment, supplies and other items. Although it is nearly $22,000 less than the

LOYD QUILTS RATES ON ROOSEVELT LIFE

LONDON, June 5.—(UP)—Lloyd's insurance underwriters, at the request of the American government and the foreign office, have ceased to quote rates on President Roosevelt's life, it was reported today in well informed quarters.

Several weeks ago the United Press disclosed that Lloyd's men were doing a profitable business in writing policies indemnifying applicants against harm befalling the president.

Reports were that on instructions from Washington Ambassador Robert W. Bingham made representations to the government against the quotations.

It was recommended that the California debris commission, created in 1932, to regulate hydraulic mining, be continued in office. Construction of debris dams on the Yuba and American rivers at a cost of $43,000,000 was suggested.

Additional recommendations for the Pacific region included: Trinity river—Construction of a reservoir and tunnel for diversion of water to the Sacramento river, $62,000,000.

Sacramento valley—Construction of ten reservoirs with power facilities at seven, $371,000,000.

CATHOLICS URGED TO BOYCOTT FILMS

CHICAGO, June 5.—(UP)—Charging that motion picture producers have violated decency and debased public morality, George Cardinal Mundelein today urged the hundreds of thousands of Catholic communicants in the Chicago diocese to boycott offending pictures.

The church leader indicated every church in the diocese would join Sunday in opening a campaign to support a program of the Legion of Decency, semi-church organization, against unfavorable films.

Four years ago when Hollywood producers signed an agreement to censor their own productions, the Cardinal said, "We thought we were dealing with intelligent gentlemen. We were mistaken; to the most of them it was just another scrap of paper."

PRESIDENT ASSURES FARMERS HALF BILLION FOR RELIEF IN DROUGHT STRICKEN AREA

WASHINGTON, June 5.—(UP)—President Roosevelt sent assurance to drought-stricken farmers today that more than a half billion government dollars will be poured into sun-licked areas for relief.

The president mobilized the far-flung relief machinery of the New Deal and the experts emerged with a comprehensive six-point program to bring cheer, food and work into the areas of the west and mid-west where for weeks the sun and wind has curled crops and whipped off the top of the land. Here's what the harried farmers may expect from the government:

1—$100,000,000 for additional purchase of beef and dairy cattle now lean from lack of feed.

2—$100,000,000 for processing the beef and other products for food to families on relief.

3—$100,000,000 for livestock feed.

4—$100,000,000 for work programs to circulate immediately ready cash in the stricken regions.

5—$75,000,000 for seed for other crops; retirement of sub-marginal lands in North and South Dakota and expansion of civilian conservation corps camps to provide work for young farm men.

The remaining money was not definitely allotted but probably would be spent for unforeseen contingencies.

FLOOD CONTROL EMPHASIZED IN SENATE REPORT

Early Development of Six Regional Projects Are Urged on Congress

WASHINGTON, June 5.—(UP)—Early development of six regional rivers and water-powers projects at an ultimate cost of more than $390,000,000 was recommended to congress today as the first step in a vast inland waterways program.

President Roosevelt transmitted to the senate reports of technical sub-committees of his departmental group which was formed to advise him on developments of a national water policy.

The reports suggested that early consideration should be given to: Pacific Coast—Building of reservoirs on the San Joaquin, Kings and Sacramento rivers at a cost of $84,000,000; San Joaquin river—Kern county canal, $25,000,000; and the Plant reservoir, $15,500,000.

Colorado River—Reservoirs in the upper basin, $19,000,000; a canal to Gila valley, $9,000,000; miscellaneous, $3,000,000. The reports said the need of work in this region was the greatest.

Mr. Roosevelt said he would submit a comprehensive policy to the next congress. He said the advisory committee reports had been a draft hastily and suggested that they be treated as a preliminary study.

The reports said hydro-electric development in the Pacific coast area would be ample upon completion of the Boulder Dam, Bonneville and Grand Coulee projects. Flood control was emphasized as a vital necessity in the west.

It was recommended that the California debris commission, created in 1932, to regulate hydraulic mining, be continued in office. Construction of debris dams on the Yuba and American rivers at a cost of $43,000,000 was suggested.

Additional recommendations for the Pacific region included: Trinity river—Construction of a reservoir and tunnel for diversion of water to the Sacramento river, $62,000,000.

CONTRACT VOIDING UPHELD BY COURT

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Action of Postmaster-General Farley in cancelling contracts of four air-mail carriers was upheld today by Justice O'Donoghue in the District of Columbia Supreme Court.

The court granted a motion to dismiss suits brought by National Air Transport, Inc., Pacific Air Transport, Varney Airlines, Inc., and Boeing Air Transport, Inc., to restrain Farley from enforcing his cancellation order.

William J. Donovan, counsel for the companies, said the case will be appealed.

TAKES BULLET FROM HEAD AFTER 3 YEARS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—(UP)—Three years ago William Blehl, 69, Oakland, accidentally shot himself in the head.

Doctors at the Alameda county hospital failed to find the bullet. This week Blehl complained of feeling a splinter in his eye. He believed it had entered while he was chopping wood. A doctor examined the eye and removed a small piece of lead—the long missing bullet.

600 POSSEMEN HUNT BANDITS IN DENSE WOOD

Murderous Desperadoes Believed to Be Surrounded in Indiana

SCOTTSDALE, Ind., June 5.—(UP)—Advancing slowly in search of two murderous bandits, 600 possemen closed in through a dense forest about five miles south of here today.

The bandits were believed to be surrounded in the woods after seriously wounding Patrolman John Pfaffenberger, 30, Seymour, and killing Deputy Sheriff Harold Amick, 24, Scottsburg.

State police under the direction of Capt. Matt Leach, sheriffs of surrounding counties and American Legion members and vigilantes in the area were included in the posse.

Concentrated on the forest, at the edge of Underwood, after the bandits wrecked their car in flight and wounded Amick mortally.

Closely followed by Cleve Redman, night marshal at Scottsburg, and Lee Gladstein, a resident of Scottsburg, the bandits sped into Underwood. They attempted to make a sharp turn into a private driveway and their car crashed into a garage.

Sheriff Wilbur Amick, Scottsburg, and his half brother, Harold, a deputy, were hiding behind the garage waiting for chicken thieves active in the neighborhood.

Unaware of what was happening, young Amick stepped from his hiding place to investigate the crash and was shot down by revolver fire from the bandits. The outlaws fled into the woods.

Redman and Gladstein arrived immediately afterward. The wounded deputy was rushed to St. Edward's hospital at New Albany, Ind.

FINLAND IS ONLY NATION TO PAY DEBT

British Note Delivered to State Department Explains She Cannot Pay

CONFERENCE SOUGHT

Congressional Leaders Appear to Welcome Showdown on Debt Problem

WASHINGTON, June 5.—(UP)—Great Britain, first of the debtor nations to undertake payment of vast funds borrowed in time of war, joined the defaulters' bloc today with notification to this government that on June 15 it will not pay millions due the treasury.

The British debt note reiterated the view expressed 18 months ago that debt payment agreements "cannot be revived without disaster." With British debt default on June 15, a problem which has plagued the world since the war goes into deadlock.

The debt objective appears to be a general conference to adjust the $12,000,000,000 obligations advanced by the United States when our allies had their backs to the wall. This government rejects the general conference idea. There is no intention in Washington of permitting the United States to be "ganged" by its debtors.

Finland to Pay
Finland alone of all the war time borrowers will pay the semi-annual installments due next week.

Congressional leaders appeared to welcome the debt showdown precipitated by Great Britain despite Mr. Roosevelt's plea that debtors make substantial sacrifices to meet their obligations.

Typical comment: Chairman Key Pittman, D., Nev., of the senate foreign relations committee: "I have long foreseen this. There probably will be no further payments or adjustments in international exchange is stabilized."

Speaker Henry T. Rainey, D., Ill.—"It is regrettable that an enormously wealthy, friendly country which is related to us has decided to default its obligations."

Sen. William E. Borah, R., Ida.—"I did not anticipate payment, but I do anticipate that if we approach the British empire for reciprocal trade agreement, we will find the British ready to discuss debts. France already has increased tariffs against American products with such an end in view."

Johnson Speaks
Sen. Hiram Johnson, R., Cal., author of the bill barring defaulters from the American money market: "Great Britain has refused to honor her obligations for a long time, that she now does so openly does not alter the situation."

Sen. J. Hamilton Lewis, D., Ill.—"Great Britain has artfully pre-

While supervisors argued the wisdom of releasing 300,000 children from their classes, school officials at Ontario, 35 miles east of here, closed all schools a week ahead of schedule.

The new cases in Los Angeles county brought the total for the first four days in June to 86 and the total since May 1 to 264.

Less than a dozen of the cases have resulted fatally. Meanwhile, sports officials indefinitely called off the Southern California swimming championship scheduled here for last week-end. Swimming pools at the University of Southern California and other institutions have been closed.

RAIN, ONE OF THE heaviest downpours of the year, fell throughout Orange county last night and early today, generally benefitting agriculturists of this area and causing only slight damage.

Light showers began falling in Santa Ana around 10 p. m., and continued all night to give this city a 42 recording, when measured this morning, the highest since the .64 mark of February 24. Santa Ana previously this year received .40 and .41 rains, respectively, February 20 and 23, and the surprising total of 2.30 during the Southern California storm which started New Year's day.

Although it perhaps was the heaviest June rain ever recorded in Santa Ana and the majority of other communities, there was a slight decrease shown at Tustin where .65 inches fell as compared with the record of .70 on the same date last season.

San Juan Capistrano received the greatest benefit from the current storm, with a mark of .75. The mission city recorded .93 inches on February 24.

Other high marks were at Huntington Beach, with .65; Talbert, .60; Newport, .43; Anaheim, .36; and Fullerton, .26.

TEN CONVICTS WHO ESCAPED CAPTURED

PARCHMAN, Miss., June 5.—(UP)—All but one of the 11 convicts who rioted and escaped from Mississippi state prison No. 10 here had been re-captured today. Clifford Smith, who killed his sweetheart a year ago, was still at liberty.

Andrew Lewis, robber-convict, was shot to death by guards in the break yesterday. Three others were wounded including Veto Brewer, a guard who received one bullet in his spine. Two prisoners received minor wounds in the general shooting preceding the escape.

BODY OF GOVERNOR ROLPH IS LAID TO REST IN GREENLAWN CEMETERY IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—(UP)—The body of Gov. James Rolph Jr. was laid to rest today near the graves of his pioneer parents in Greenlawn cemetery.

The members of the Rolph family claimed the late executive as their own today, barring a sorrowful public from the final rites held in the old-fashioned Rolph residence in the Mission district where he was born 63 years ago.

Only the family and a few close friends—the men who came with Rolph from the Mission 28 years ago to lead in the rehabilitation of a city stricken by earthquake and fire—were allowed to enter the home for the private service.

The Rev. Robert W. Ford, pastor of Holy Innocents Episcopal church, where Rolph worshipped when he was at home, officiated.

Lloyd Banks Sets Figure Of $465,845

Reveals Expenses for Last Fiscal Year $83,000 Under Year Before

REVEALING that municipal expenditures for the fiscal year just closing were $83,000 less than the preceding year, and that the proposed budget for 1934-35 is set at $465,845, or a decrease of $21,039.32 under that of this year, the tentative budget for the city of Santa Ana was submitted to the council last night by City Auditor Lloyd Banks.

In his explanation of the budget, Banks pointed out that the city was able to cut expenses this year by $83,000 and still include the unforeseen items not budgeted but which were appropriated from time to time, including relief and CWA projects, purchase of property and equipment, chlorination equipment for the water department, police car and radio equipment, and other items.

Despite this unexpected expense of $26,135, the city was able to operate within the budget of $486,984.32 and show a surplus of $641 at the end of the year. Banks reported. Eliminating the unforeseen items, the objective of the council in cutting expenses by $100,000 was really reached, Banks said.

Tax Levy Less
The total amount of the tax levy this year will be approximately $31,000 less than the past year, Banks said, based on the same rate with a 10 per cent decrease in valuation. If the valuation had remained the same, the tentative rate for 1934-35 would be $1.68, or a reduction of 17 cents in the tax rate. However, when the valuations decrease, expenditures must be reduced or other means of income secured. The proposed budget is based on a reduction in expenditures to attain this end.

The proposed budget includes all salaries, fixed charges, capital outlay, but does not include any allowance for possible requirements to meet improvement delinquencies, maintenance of equipment, supplies and other items. Although it is nearly $22,000 less than the

LLOYD QUILTS RATES ON ROOSEVELT LIFE

LONDON, June 5.—(UP)—Lloyd's insurance underwriters, at the request of the American government and the foreign office, have ceased to quote rates on President Roosevelt's life, it was reported today in well informed quarters.

Several weeks ago the United Press disclosed that Lloyd's men were doing a profitable business in writing policies indemnifying applicants against harm befalling the president.

Reports were that on instructions from Washington Ambassador Robert W. Bingham made representations to the government against the quotations.

CATHOLICS URGED TO BOYCOTT FILMS

CHICAGO, June 5.—(UP)—Charging that motion picture producers have violated decency and debased public morality, George Cardinal Mundelein today urged the hundreds of thousands of Catholic communicants in the Chicago diocese to boycott offending pictures.

The church leader indicated every church in the diocese would join Sunday in opening a campaign to support a program of the Legion of Decency, semi-church organization, against unfavored films.

Four years ago when Hollywood producers signed an agreement to censor their own productions, the Cardinal said, "We thought we were dealing with intelligent gentlemen. We were mistaken; to the most of them it was just another scrap of paper."

PRESIDENT ASSURES FARMERS HALF BILLION FOR RELIEF IN DROUGHT STRICKEN AREA

WASHINGTON, June 5.—(UP)—President Roosevelt sent assurance to drought-stricken farmers today that more than a half billion government dollars will be poured into sun-baked areas for relief.

The president mobilized the far-flung relief machinery of the New Deal and the experts emerged with a comprehensive six-point program to bring cheer, food and work into the areas of the west and mid-west where for weeks the sun and wind had curled crops and whipped off the top soil. Here's what the harried farmers may expect from the government:

1—$100,000,000 for additional purchase of beef and dairy cattle now lean from lack of feed.

2—$100,000,000 for processing the beef and other products for food to families on relief.

3—$100,000,000 for livestock feed.

4—$100,000,000 for work programs to circulate immediately ready cash in the stricken regions.

5—$75,000,000 for seed for other crops; retirement of sub-marginal lands in North and South Dakota and expansion of civilian conservation corps camps to provide work for young farm men.

The remaining money was not definitely allotted but probably would be spent for unforeseen contingencies.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—(UP)—Early development of six regional rivers and water-power projects at an ultimate cost of more than $390,000,000 was recommended to congress today as the first step in a vast inland waterways program.

President Roosevelt transmitted to the senate reports of technical sub-committees of his departmental group which was formed to advise him on developments of a national water policy.

The reports suggested that early consideration should be given to: Pacific Coast—Building of reservoirs on the San Joaquin, Kings and Sacramento rivers at a cost of $84,000,000; San Joaquin river-Kern county canal, $28,000,000; and the Plant reservoir, $15,500,000.

Colorado River—Reservoirs in the upper basin, $10,000,000; a canal to Gila valley, $9,000,000; miscellaneous, $3,000,000. The reports said the need of work in this region was the greatest.

Mr. Roosevelt said he would submit a comprehensive policy to the next congress. He said the advisory committee reports had been drafted hastily and suggested that they be treated as a preliminary study.

The reports said hydro-electric development in the Pacific coast area would be ample upon completion of the Boulder Dam, Bonneville and Grand Coulee projects. Flood control was emphasized as a vital necessity in the west.

It was recommended that the California debris commission, created in 1932, to regulate hydraulic mining, be continued in office. Construction of debris dams on the Yuba and American rivers at a cost of $43,000,000 was suggested.

Additional recommendations for the Pacific region included: Trinity river—Construction of a reservoir and tunnel for diversion of water to the Sacramento river, $62,000,000.

Sacramento valley—Construction of ten reservoirs with power facilities at seven, $371,000,000.

The court granted a motion to dismiss suits brought by National Air Transport, Inc., Pacific Air Transport, Varney Airlines, Inc., and Boeing Air Transport, Inc., to restrain Farley from enforcing his cancellation order.

William J. Donovan, counsel for the companies, said the case will be appealed.

CONFERENCE SOUGHT

Congressional Leaders Appear to Welcome Showdown on Debt Problem

WASHINGTON, June 5.—(UP)—Great Britain, first of the debtor nations to undertake payment of vast funds borrowed in time of war, joined the defaulters' bloc today with notification to this government that on June 15 it will not pay millions due the treasury.

The British debt note reiterated the view expressed 18 months ago that debt payment agreements "cannot be revived without disaster." With British debt default on June 15, a problem which has plagued the world since the war goes into deadlock.

The debt objective appears to be a general conference to adjust the $12,000,000,000 obligations advanced by the United States when our allies had their backs to the wall. "This government rejects the general conference idea. There is no intention in Washington of permitting the United States to be 'ganged' by its debtors."

Finland to Pay
Finland alone of all the war time borrowers will pay the semi-annual installments due next week.

Congressional leaders appeared to welcome the debt showdown precipitated by Great Britain despite Mr. Roosevelt's plea that debtors make substantial sacrifices to meet their obligations.

Typical comment: Chairman Key Pittman, D. Nev., of the senate foreign relations committee: "I have long foreseen this. There probably will be no further payments or adjustments until international exchange is stabilized."

Speaker Henry T. Rainey, D. Ill.—"It is regrettable that an enormously wealthy, friendly country which is related to us has decided to default its obligations."

Sen. William E. Borah, R. Ida.—"I did not anticipate payment, but I do anticipate that if we approach the British empire for reciprocal trade agreement we will find the British ready to discuss debts. France already has increased tariffs against American products with such an end in view."

Johnson Speaks
Sen. Hiram Johnson, R. Cal., author of the bill barring defaulters from the American money market: "Great Britain has refused to honor her obligations for a long time, but she now does so openly does not alter the situation."

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Action of Postmaster-General Farley in canceling contracts of four air-mail carriers was upheld today by Justice O'Donoghue in the District of Columbia Supreme Court.

William J. Donovan, counsel for the companies, said the case will be appealed.

TAKES BULLET FROM HEAD AFTER 3 YEARS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—(UP)—Three years ago William Bleh, 69, Oakland, accidentally shot himself in the head.

Doctors at the Alameda county hospital failed to find the bullet. This week Bleh complained of feeling a splinter in his eye. He believed it had entered while he was chopping wood. A doctor examined the eye and removed a small piece of lead—the long missing bullet.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

HOLLYWOOD, June 5.—(To the Editor of The Register.) A sad wire this morning from Vice-President O'Hara tells me of the death of a good friend, Father O'Donnell of the great Notre Dame University. What a fine, plain, human man. What Rockne did with 'em when they got those football suits on this man did with 'em while they was off the field. And turned out many "All Americans" in the game of life.

Some good news in the papers, however; it rained in the Middle West; farmers are learning that the relief they get from the sky beats what they get from Washington.

WILL ROGERS.

NEW GOVERNOR TAKES UP WORK IN SACRAMENTO

simply the constitution and make possible additional reduction of governmental costs.

Labor Restless

Unemployment is increasing in Southern California, according to Controller Ray L. Riley, and many authorities believe this is the most important matter facing state officials.

Labor is restless. Agitators are preparing to resume their activities in agricultural fields. Action of the chief executive may be necessary in the Longshoremen's strike.

Prisons are overcrowded hotbeds of potential trouble. Officials believe there must be an immediate program prepared to provide more space and facilities for the handling of criminals and mental defectives.

In addition to considering all those problems, Merriam must prepare for one of the most complex political campaigns the state has witnessed. He will have strong competition in his fight for the governorship.

Furthermore, he must decide what to do with the administration machine left by Governor Rolph. It was believed he would replace the staff in the governor's office, and possibly change some department heads. Observers predicted Merriam would retain Finance Director Rolland Vandegrift, Director of Public Works Earl Lee Kelly, Director of Agriculture A. A. Brock, and Registrar of Motor Vehicles Russell Bevans. But disposition of other administration offices was a question.

Oil Field Union Leaders Jubilant

FORT WORTH, Tex., June 5.—(UP)—Oil field union leaders, in convention here, were confident today that other major oil companies would follow the action of the Consolidated Oil Corporation in recognizing their union.

Announcement of the Consolidated corporation's recognition was made amidst cheer of the 400 members attending the meeting of the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America. Confirmation came later in an announcement from Washington by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Union leaders hailed this as a distinct triumph in their 17-year battle to obtain recognition.

and has been connected with the firm since 1919. He is a member of the Kiwanis club, Elks lodge, American Legion and has taken a prominent part in civic and fraternal activities in Santa Ana and Orange county.

Hasenjaeger did not state definitely whether he would resign as president of the Orange County League of Municipalities and the Orange County Building and Loan association. He indicated, however, that he would continue a keen interest in both organizations and probably continue his post as head of the building and loan group since his bank activities were closely aligned with work in that activity.

Hasenjaeger's term on the city council would have expired next April. His resignation leaves Mayor Paul Witmer and E. G. Warner the only members of the original board elected in 1931. Witmer has indicated that he also will resign in the near future because of his recent appointment as federal land registrar for Southern California, with headquarters in Los Angeles.

FATHER EMBRACES SON WHO KILLED MOTHER, BROTHER

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—(UP)—L. F. Parne, wealthy middle-aged utilities executive, returned to Los Angeles today and immediately took into his arms his son, Louis, 21, who has admitted that he killed his mother and brother—the elder Payne's wife and only other son.

In a dramatic, tear-pulling meeting, Parne promised to do everything possible to help the son, who now faces murder charges, wiped out the remainder of Payne's family.

The greeting of the pair took place in the West Los Angeles jail to which Payne sped immediately upon his arrival here from St. Louis, where he was last Tuesday night when young Louis took a Scout axe and chopped the life from Mrs. Carrie Payne, 46, and Robert Payne, 14.

Even veteran police officers wiped tears away when the father greeted Louis.

The son was nervously pacing his cell when the father arrived. As the door opened, Louis cringed back into the farthest corner of his jail bunk. He did not look up as Payne, sobbing, quickly crossed to him.

The father dropped to his knees, put his arm around Louis and then the son spoke the first word between them.

"Don't desert me, Dad," the youth cried hoarsely.

"I won't, son," the father promised.

"Tell me it can't be true, Dad, tell me that," Louis said next.

The father had no reply. He merely held the boy in his arms, patting him on the shoulders.

Neither moved for several minutes and then reporters were ordered out of the cell to permit officers to talk over the crime with the father and son.

GIRL KIDNAPERS TO GO TO REFORMATORY

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—(UP)—Two girl companions of the kidnapers of William F. Gettle, Beverly Hills oil millionaire, today were sentenced to terms in a federal reformatory.

On her conviction on charges of conspiracy to extort by use of the mails, Mona Gallagher, 21, Whittier, was ordered to the reformatory at Alderson, West Virginia, for two years, while Loretta Woody, 23, was given an 18 month sentence in the same institution on the same charge.

Federal Officers Arrest Suspect On Firearms Charge

Charged with unlawful possession of a firearm, Fortino Castro, 24, 913 East Pine street, was arrested at his home last night by immigration officials and turned over to Santa Ana police, who booked him at the jail.

Federal Officers Alshouse, Davis and Floyd took Castro into custody and found a revolver on his person. It is believed that he entered this country illegally and may face deportation.

NOT EMPLOYE

Lewis Trujillo, 36, accused of a statutory offense against a young Garden Grove girl, was not an employee of the Santa Ana Motor Parts company, it was declared today by Tom Willits, manager, who pointed out that the rumors were due to careless reading of a story in Saturday's Register which stated that Trujillo was employed by a "Santa Ana auto parts company."

YOUTH BEATEN AND THEN BURIED ALIVE

PHILIPPI, W. Va., June 5.—(UP)—A theory that 15-year-old Dale James was buried alive because he knew of crimes committed by two suspects was advanced today by state police.

James' body was discovered Sunday in a cave near his grandfather's home. An autopsy indicated he had been beaten, then covered with stones and leaves while still living.

Additional forces of state police were ordered here today to aid in questioning Gordon Blake, 35, Clemon, an ex-convict, and Lawrence Carroll, 28, of Monticello. The sheriff's office reported they admitted being with Dale the night he disappeared, but said they knew nothing of his death. The boy disappeared May 27.

actual expenditure for 1933-34, this amount includes additional requirements desired by the departments and also the amount of $12,000 to take care of the additional expense over the $100,000 bond issue for the new city hall.

An expense of $2000 for the coming year's election is included.

Half for Salaries

Under the budget, salaries account for $212,519, or 46 per cent of the total. Other items are fixed charges, $142,578, 31 per cent; capital outlay, $11,420, 2 per cent; repairs, $2200, 1 per cent; supplies, $28,768, 6 per cent; general government, $9585, 2 per cent; library, $23,600, 5 per cent; equipment maintenance, $15,675, 3 per cent, and special funds, $8600, 2 per cent.

Breaking down some of the items above, the following totals are included: special funds: music, $2500; advertising, $775; planning commission, $325; joint outfall sewer, $5000; total, $8600.

Capital outlay: city hall, $12,000; police, $1000; water, $1000; street, $2000; sanitary, $3000; parks, $300; fire, $1120; total, $21,420.

General government: audit, $625; collection of taxes, $600; legal advertising, $500; election, $2000; feeding prisoners, $2500; League of Municipalities, $300; jury costs, $400; Metropolitan Water district, $260; council, $300; investigation, $700; fire alarm, $400; miscellaneous, $1000; total, $9585.

Huge Decrease

The proposed budget represents a decrease of nearly $240,000 over the expenditures of 1930-31, which was the peak year in the history of the city. Actual expenditures by fiscal years in recent terms are as follows: 1926-27, $656,097.81; 1927-28, $697,577.50; 1928-29, $687,168.32; 1929-30, $666,892.19; 1930-31, $704,422.03; 1931-32, $628,086.90; 1932-33, $564,033; 1933-34, $486,984.32.

With reference to the 1915 bond delinquencies, which threaten to add an increase to the tax rate entirely beyond the control of the city council, Banks said that a thorough survey of each district will be made and a report submitted at a later date showing the actual condition of each district.

GREAT BRITAIN WILL DEFAULT DEBT PAYMENT

pared a good bargaining position for reciprocal trade agreements authorized by congress in the tariff act.

Sen. Hendrick Shipstead, F-L, Minn.: "They hired the money but they won't or can't pay. Perhaps there is a good argument in inability to transfer funds with high tariffs prevailing. But this should be a lesson for the next war."

Chairman Samuel D. McReynolds, D, Tenn., of the house foreign affairs committee: "If the issue is to be made, it might just as well be made now. I regret they have taken this position, but I feel that it is better for us in the long run to have them take this position than to make a token payment."

From the reported comment of the British treasury, they could have paid if they had desired to do so."

Disappointment

Sen. David I. Walsh, D, Mass., a member of the finance committee which handles debt matters: "It is disappointing to learn that Great Britain has joined the repudiators. It is one thing to be unable to meet an obligation and to ask for extension of payments, but it is quite another to ask for readjustment."

Sen. Tom Connally, D, Texas, also a finance committeeman: "The Democratic party platform opposes cancellation of the debts and I take the same position."

Rep. Samuel B. Hill, D, Wash., ranking Democrat on the ways and means committee, which deals with debt matters: "It is regrettable that Britain sees fit to default, but that does not change our position. If they won't pay we should at least keep the obligation on the books indefinitely."

Rep. John J. O'Connor, D, N.Y.: "I'm surprised at the attitude which the British government takes, especially in view of the President's debt message and the important feature in the message that the money with which Great Britain defended itself in the war was contributed by individual American citizens who never yet

BRITISH PROPOSAL SPURNED BY FRANCE

GENEVA, June 5.—(UP)—France today rejected a proposal of Arthur Henderson of Great Britain intended to compromise Anglo-American demands for disarmament and French demands for security.

Louis Barthou, French delegate to the world arms conference, refused to accept the British resolution which would have meant, in effect, an indefinite adjournment of the parley and an attempt to persuade Germany to return to Geneva.

The Henderson resolution had the support of Norman Davis, representing the United States. It provided that the full conference should continue efforts at disarmament, while the political commission considered security measures.

This cannot be done until detailed information is received from the county on tax payments, he said.

COURT ISSUES INJUNCTION ON 27 OIL WELLS

Temporary injunctions were filed here today against Huntington Beach oil operators, prohibiting continued operation of 27 wells, having been signed in San Diego late yesterday by Superior Judge L. N. Turrentine, who heard petitions filed by the state.

The injunctions were directed against the H. E. Allen Trust, and others, known as the omnibus case; the Vention Oil company, A. L. Jameson and others, and the Minnesota Oil company. The first mentioned case affects 24 wells, the others one each.

Judge Turrentine also filed an order overruling a demurrer in the Milroy Oil company case, and allowing 15 days for the filing of an answer to the state's injunction suit.

The temporary injunctions issued today will be effective June 9, unless operators take advantage of a provision in the court's order, which permits the filing of a written consent with the county clerk, before noon of June 9, agreeing to impound receipts of oil and gas sales from the wells affected.

The order provides that such oil and gas may be sold at posted market prices to a responsible purchaser, mutually agreed upon and named in the written consent. The purchaser would be required to pay the monies to the county clerk, to be held in trust in the county treasury, pending final determination of the litigation. If such consent is filed by the operators, the temporary injunctions will not be operative, the court stated.

and Orange, 35. Fullerton recorded .26 early today, after receiving only brief showers last night.

The lightest rainfall occurred in San Clemente, Placentia, Brea and Yorba Linda.

Hay and ripe berries were the only crops not benefitting from the rain, according to Harold Wahlberg, county farm adviser. A wealth of good was done the bean farmers, he said, and the rain also gave the citrus and walnut crops a good washing.

Only traces of rain fell at San Diego and Riverside, where the rainfall is far below normal. Long Beach received .30, Los Angeles .40, San Pedro .33, Santa Barbara .30. San Luis Obispo was drenched by 1.30 inches.

The general rain over Southern California broke a drought of more than six months and enabled farmers to replant crops that had been destroyed by grasshoppers in several counties.

The United States weather bureau predicts light showers for tonight and tomorrow in this section, with the weather generally unsettled.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

HOLLYWOOD, June 5.—(To the Editor of The Register): A sad wire this morning from Vice-President O'Hara tells me of the death of a good friend, Father O'Donnell of the great Notre Dame University. What a fine, plain, human man. What Rocke did with 'em when they got those football suits on this man did with 'em while they was off the field. And turned out many "all Americans" in the game of life.

Some good news in the papers, however; it rained in the Middle West; farmers are learning that the relief they get from the sky beats what they get from Washington.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

Labor Restless

Unemployment is increasing in Southern California, according to Controller Ray L. Riley, and many authorities believe this is the most important matter facing state officials.

Labor is restless. Agitators are preparing to resume their activities in agricultural fields. Action of the chief executive may be necessary in the Longshoremen's strike.

Prisons are overcrowded hotbeds of potential trouble. Officials believe there must be an immediate program prepared to provide more space and facilities for the handling of criminals and mental defectives.

In addition to considering all these problems, Merriam must prepare for one of the most complex political campaigns the state has witnessed. He will have strong competition in his fight for the governorship.

Furthermore, he must decide what to do with the administration machine left by Governor Rolph. It was believed he would replace the staff in the governor's office and possibly change some department heads. Observers predicted Merriam would retain Finance Director Rolland Vandegrift, Director of Public Works Earl Lee Kelly, Director of Agriculture A. A. Brock, and Registrar of Motor Vehicles Russell Bevans. But disposition of other administration offices was a question.

OIL FIELD UNION LEADERS JUBILANT

FORT WORTH, Tex., June 5.—(UP)—Oil field union leaders, in convention here, were confident today that other major oil companies would follow the action of the Consolidated Oil corporation in recognizing their union.

Announcement of the Consolidated corporation's recognition was made amidst cheer of the 400 members attending the meeting of the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers of America. Confirmation came later in an announcement from Washington by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Union leaders hailed this as a distinct triumph in their 17-year battle to obtain recognition.

and has been connected with the firm since 1919. He is a member of the Kiwanis club, Elks lodge, American Legion and has taken a prominent part in civic and fraternal activities in Santa Ana and Orange.

Hasenjaeger did not state definitely whether he would resign as president of the Orange County League of Municipalities and the Orange County Building and Loan association. He indicated, however, that he would continue a keen interest in both organizations and probably continue his post as head of the building and loan group since his bank activities were closely aligned with work in that activity.

Hasenjaeger's term on the city council would have expired next April. His resignation leaves Mayor Paul Witmer and E. G. Warner the only members of the original board elected in 1931. Witmer has indicated that he also will resign in the near future because of his recent appointment as federal land registrar for Southern California, with headquarters in Los Angeles.

FATHER EMBRACES SON WHO KILLED MOTHER, BROTHER

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—(UP)—L. F. Payne, wealthy middle-aged utilities executive, returned to Los Angeles today and immediately took into his arms his son, Louis, 21, who has admitted that he killed his mother and brother—the elder Payne's wife and only other son.

In a dramatic, tear-pulling meeting, Payne promised to do everything possible to help the son, who, now facing murder charges, wiped out the remainder of Payne's family.

The greeting of the pair took place in the West Los Angeles jail to which Payne sped immediately upon his arrival here from St. Louis, where he was last Tuesday night when young Louis took a Scout axe and chopped the life from Mrs. Carrie Payne, 46, and Robert Payne, 14.

Even veteran police officers wiped tears away when the father greeted Louis. The son was nervously pacing his cell when the father arrived. As the door opened, Louis cringed back into the farthest corner of his jail bunk. He did not look up at his hands. He did not look up at his father.

The father dropped to his knees, put his arm around Louis and then the son spoke the first word between them. "Don't desert me, Dad," the youth cried hoarsely.

"I won't, son," the father promised.

"Tell me it can't be true, Dad. Tell me that," Louis said next.

The father had no reply. He merely held the boy in his arms, patting him on the shoulders.

Neither moved for several minutes and then reporters were ordered out of the cell to permit officers to talk over the crime with the father and son.

GIRL KIDNAPERS TO GO TO REFORMATORY

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—(UP)—Two girl companions of the kidnapers of William F. Gettle, Beverly Hills oil millionaire, today were sentenced to terms in a federal reformatory.

On her conviction on charges of conspiracy to extort by use of the mails, Mona Gallagher, 21, Whittier, was ordered to the reformatory at Alderson, West Virginia, for two years, while Loretta Woody, 23, was given an 18 month sentence in the same institution on the same charge.

Federal Officers Arrest Suspect On Firearms Charge

Charged with unlawful possession of a firearm, Fortino Castro, 24, 913 East Pine street, was arrested at his home last night by immigration officials and turned over to Santa Ana police, who booked him at the jail.

Federal Officers Althouse, Davis and Floyd took Castro into custody and found a revolver on his person. It is believed that he entered this country illegally and may face deportation.

NOT EMPLOYEE

Lewis Trujillo, 35, accused of a statutory offense against a young Garden Grove girl, was not an employee of the Santa Ana Motor Parts company, it was declared today by Tom Willis, manager, who pointed out that the rumors were due to careless reading of a story in Saturday's Register which stated that Trujillo was employed by a "Santa Ana auto parts company."

YOUTH BEATEN AND THEN BURIED ALIVE

PHILIPPI, W. Va., June 5.—(UP)—A theory that 15-year-old Dale James was buried alive because he knew of crimes committed by two suspects was advanced today by state police.

James' body was discovered Sunday in a cave near his grandfather's home. An autopsy indicated he had been beaten, then covered with stones and leaves while still living.

Additional forces of state police were ordered here today to aid in questioning Gordon Blake, 35, Clement, an ex-convict, and Lawrence Carroll, 28, of Moatsville. The sheriff's office reported they admitted being with Dale the night he disappeared, but said they knew nothing of his death. The boy disappeared May 27.

actual expenditure for 1933-34, this amount includes additional requirements desired by the departments and also the amount of $12,000 to take care of the additional expense over the $100,000 bond issue for the new city hall. An expense of $2000 for the coming year's election is included.

Half for Salaries

Under the budget, salaries account for $212,519, or 46 per cent of the total. Other items are fixed charges, $142,578, 31 per cent; capital outlay, $21,420, 2 per cent; repairs, $200, 1 per cent; supplies, $2,768, 6 per cent; general government, $958, 2 per cent; library, $23,500, 5 per cent; equipment maintenance, $15,675, 3 per cent, and special funds, $8600, 2 per cent.

Capital outlay: city hall, $12,000; police, $1000; water, $1000; street, $2000; sanitary, $3000; parks, $300; fire, $1120; total, $21,420.

General government: audit, $625; collection of taxes, $600; legal advertising, $500; election, $2000; feeding prisoners, $2500; League of Municipalities, $300; jury costs, $400; Metropolitan Water district, $2000; council, $300; investigation, $700; fire alarm, $400; miscellaneous weed cleaning, $1000; total, $9585.

Huge Decrease

The proposed budget represents a decrease of nearly $240,000 over the expenditures of 1930-31, which was the peak year in the history of the city. Actual expenditures by fiscal years in recent terms are as follows: 1926-27, $656,097.81; 1927-28, $697,577.50; 1928-29, $687,108.32; 1929-30, $666,892; 1930-31, $704,422.03; 1931-32, $628,080.90; 1932-33, $564,033; 1933-34, $486,844.32.

With reference to the 1935 bond delinquencies which threaten to add an increase to the tax rate entirely beyond the control of the city council, Banks said that a thorough survey of each district will be made and a report submitted at a later date showing the actual condition of each district.

GREAT BRITAIN WILL DEFAULT DEBT PAYMENT

pared a good bargaining position for reciprocal trade agreements authorized by congress in the tariff act.

Sen. Hendrick Shipstead, F-L, Minn.: "They hired the money but they won't or can't pay. Perhaps there is a good argument in inability to transfer funds with high tariffs prevailing. But this should be a lesson for the next war."

Chairman Samuel D. McReynolds, D., Tenn., of the house foreign affairs committee: "If the issue is to be made, it might just as well be made now. I regret they have taken this position, but I feel that it is better for us in the long run to have them take this position than to make a token payment. From the reported condition of the British treasury, they could have paid if they had desired to do so."

Disappointment
Sen. David I. Walsh, D., Mass., a member of the finance committee which handles debt matters: "It is disappointing to learn that Great Britain has joined the repudiators. It is one thing to be unable to meet an obligation and to ask for extension of payments, but it is quite another to ask for readjustment."

Sen. Tom Connally, D., Texas, also a finance committee member: "The Democratic party platform opposes cancellation of the debts and I take the same position."

Rep. Samuel B. Hill, D., Wash., ranking Democrat on the ways and means committee, which deals with debt matters: "It is regrettable that Britain sees fit to default, but that does not change our position. If they won't pay we should at least keep the obligation on the books indefinitely."

Rep. John J. O'Connor, D., N.Y.: "I'm surprised at the attitude which the British government takes, especially in view of the President's debt message and the important feature in the message that the money with which Great Britain demanded itself in the war was contributed by individual American citizens who never yet

BRITISH PROPOSAL SPURNED BY FRANCE

GENEVA, June 5.—(UP)—France today rejected a proposal of Arthur Henderson of Great Britain intended to compromise Anglo-American demands for disarmament and French demands for security.

Louis Barthelemy, French delegate to the world arms conference, refused to accept the British resolution which would have meant, in effect, an indefinite adjournment of the parley and an attempt to persuade Germany to return to Geneva.

The Henderson resolution had the support of Norman Davis, representing the United States. It provided that the full conference should continue efforts at disarmament, while the political commission considered security measures.

This cannot be done until detailed information is received from the county on tax payments, he said.

Temporary injunctions were filed here today against Huntington Beach whippstock oil operators, prohibiting continued operation of 27 wells, having been signed in San Diego late yesterday by Superior Judge L. N. Turrentine, who heard petitions filed by the state.

The injunctions were directed against the H. E. Allen Trust, and others, known as the omnibus case; the Vention Oil company, A. L. Jameson and others, and the Minnesota Oil company. The first mentioned case affects 24 wells, the others one each.

Judge Turrentine also filed an order overruling a demurrer in the Milroy Oil company case, and allowing 15 days for the filing of an answer to the state's injunction suit.

The temporary injunctions issued today will be effective June 9, unless operators take advantage of a provision in the court's order, which permits the filing of a written consent with the county clerk, before noon of June 9, agreeing to impound receipts of oil and gas sales from the wells affected.

The order provides that such oil and gas may be sold at posted market prices to a responsible purchaser, mutually agreed upon and named in the written consent. The purchaser would be required to pay the monies to the county clerk, to be held in trust in the county treasury, pending final determination of the litigation. If such consent is filed by the operators, the temporary injunctions will not be operative, the court stated.

City Engineer J. L. McBride has cooperated with the merchants in removing oil from Fourth street between Sycamore and Main. Many shoppers had complained that the accumulated oil from automobiles had made this section of the downtown district slippery and dangerous.

CITY MAY DROP PROSECUTION IN LIQUOR CASES

Expressing doubt as to the feasibility of continuing prosecution of defendants arrested in a recent raid on liquor establishments by the police department, the city council finally decided last night to hold off action for another week to see what happens to the trials this week.

The council expressed great dissatisfaction with the outcome of the trials and said that they were originally led to believe by Chief of Police Floyd Howard that evidence would be presented concerning sale of liquor to minors. Instead, it was charged, not a single complaint was made out on this charge and the defendants were being prosecuted for not selling liquor with meals, selling liquor after midnight, or selling whiskey not in the original containers and without a license.

Councilman A. F. LeGaye contended that it would be better to avoid any further expense on the cases and allow the city attorney to spend his time working for the city concerning the 1915 Improvement bond act, which may cost the city several hundred thousand dollars for delinquent taxes.

Chief Asks Complaints. Downing stated that there would have been no trouble whatever in gaining a conviction on liquor sales to minors but that Chief Howard came to him with a report from the investigators, and asked for certain complaints, which were issued and prosecutions made with what evidence was presented by the police. He said that considerable criticism had been heard because the evidence was not strong enough to secure convictions, and he said he had used every bit of evidence possible and prosecuted the cases vigorously.

Mayor Paul Witmer reported that Howard had approached the councilmen and recommended that the investigators be hired, with the end in view of halting liquor sales to minors. Downing asked that before final action be taken in continuing or dismissing the cases, that the schedule for this week be tried. Charles Clark and Vern Speich were on trial today for their operation of Charlie's Barn on South Main street and Mrs. J. B. Morales of the Santa Ana cafe goes on trial Thursday. Both are charged with conducting and operating a public barroom, saloon and public drinking place.

Special Jury. Downing was granted permission to have a special jury panel because he contended that the jurymen who have heard testimony or served on the trials so far

The arrest of the 20 liquor dealers and cafe owners came on May 10, the same day that Chief Howard announced his candidacy for sheriff. The police investigation and consequent arrests were made several months after the council conducted an investigation which showed flagrant violations of the liquor laws regarding sales to minors.

SKIDDING CAR BRINGS DEATH TO MOTORIST

Slippery pavement from a drizzling rain was the cause of an accident last night which caused the death of Mrs. Etta J. Vander Wolf, 41, Santa Ana Gardens, and the serious injury of her husband, James Vander Wolf, 49, when their car skidded from the 101 highway near the Trabuco Creek bridge a short distance south of El Toro.

The death of the woman brought the total of traffic fatalities in the county this year to 25, compared to 16 at this time last year.

The accident occurred at 11:30 o'clock while the couple were returning from San Juan Capistrano, where they had taken their oldest son, James Jr., to the C.C.C. camp. After the wreck, passing motorists took them from the wrecked sedan which had plunged into the creek bed, and brought them to the Santa Ana Valley hospital in a truck.

Mrs. Vander Wolf died at 2:30 a. m. today from internal injuries while her husband was reported in a critical condition at noon.

Inquest arrangements are pending, according to Coroner Earl Abbey, and will be held from the Winbigger funeral home, where funeral services will be held at a later date. HENCOOP GIRL'S MOTHER FACES COURT TODAY

With several prosecution witnesses describing the condition of six-year-old Mary Ebarquary as "indescribably filthy," trial of Mrs. Josie Ebarquary, 36, mother of the child, for violation of section 273-A, a misdemeanor, got under way before Justice of the Peace John Landell this morning. Testimony was to be resumed this afternoon.

Mrs. Mary DeuPree, social worker; Dr. Mabel Geddes, school nurse; Miss Erma Cotton, county nurse, and Dr. Phil Vogel, of the county hospital, testified as to the child's pitiful condition when she was taken from her home in the mission city last week. The little girl was suffering from malnutrition and evidently had not eaten regularly for some time, they testified.

Juanita, 10-year-old sister of the little girl, declared that the reason Mary did not go to school was because she "didn't have any clothes." First mention of the chicken coop in which it was alleged the little girl spent most of her time came when the sister testified that there was a playhouse near the chicken pen and that Mary played there.

Two neighbors of the family, Mrs. Rita Lobo and Mrs. Cecil Martinez, gave testimony. Mrs. Lobo declared that while she had seen other children of the family out playing, she had never seen little Mary out of the house. Mrs. Martinez testified to an occasion when she saw Mary grab a tortilla, declaring that the little girl ate it as though she was starving. The mother and father of the girl were expected to be called to the stand this afternoon by James L. Davis, deputy district attorney, who is prosecuting the case. The mother was without an attorney at her trial before Judge Landell.

Put a PAINTER to Work!

YOU, as a part of Society, help to pay for ALL unemployment. For in this glorious land, nobody is allowed to starve, and the necessities of life are provided for everybody, even though it has to be done through public tax funds and through charity.

And Y-O-U help pay the bill, in one way or another, for supplying everybody with necessities, and you would not have it otherwise; for after all we are our "brother's keeper."

But Americans as a rule don't want charity, they don't want to be fed from tax funds. They want WORK. They want JOBS, so they can deliver full value for every dollar you pay them.

The more jobs there are, the less "relief funds" from public tax levies is necessary, but if there are not enough jobs to enable Santa Ana families to be self-supporting, then "county relief" becomes necessary as an emergency measure.

So let us use our best efforts to CREATE JOBS for people, and the best place to start, Mr. and Mr. Citizen, is RIGHT IN YOUR OWN HOME!

The house needs painting! So does the garage! A couple of rooms need calcimining! Another room needs new paper! New enamel would brighten, delightfully, the kitchen and bath!

The woodwork everywhere is more or less scratched and marred, and a good refinishing would be most timely and add greatly to the appearance of the home.

Call in a painter and put him to work. NOW is the time, with months of clear weather ahead, to have your home refinished in whole or in part.

You will get greater value from your money, and it will help some home-town painter to keep his family with decent self-respect and ability to carry on his obligations of good citizenship.

You will reap direct benefit in greater home pleasures. Another family will get food for the table and clothes for the children. And Society—which is YOU—will be spared the expense of supplying their needs through increased taxes.

If you know a reliable painting contractor, who is daily receiving applications for work, call him up and tell him you want to Put a Painter to Work. He will see that you get a fair, reasonable price on the job, and that it is finished to your satisfaction.

Call up any paint store in town. They all have on file the names of several home-town painters who need work and will be glad to get them in touch with you.

Or you can call the National Re-employment Service at the postoffice (4471) or either of the unemployed associations (4823 or 5610) and they will be glad to send a painter to you.

YOU NEED THE WORK DONE! THEY NEED JOBS! LOCAL PAINT STORES HAVE THE MATERIALS! Mix these three ingredients properly and you will be helping your own home, your community, your neighbors, and the Nation.

Public work is months getting started. But YOU can start your painting job NOW, when it is most needed.

After the wreck, passing motorists took them from the wrecked sedan which had plunged into the creek bed, and brought them to the Santa Ana Valley hospital in a truck.

Mrs. Vander Wolf died at 2:30 a. m. today from internal injuries while her husband was reported in a critical condition at noon. Inquest arrangements are pending, according to Coroner Earl Abbey, and will be held from the Winbiger funeral home, where funeral services will be held at a later date.

Margaret Vander Wolf, daughter of the accident victim, is a news correspondent for The Register and Gerri, her brother, is a paper carrier for his home district. He was a prize winner in a prize contest just completed.

Mrs. Vander Wolf is survived by her husband, James A. Vander Wolf, one daughter, Margaret, three sons, James A. Jr., Gerri F., and Harry M. of the home, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Anderson, of Santa Ana; and five brothers, Harry E. Anderson, George D. Anderson, Claude O. Anderson, all of Santa Ana, and Frank Anderson, of South Bend, Ind., and Harold Anderson, of Seattle.

HOWARD VAUGHN SERIOUSLY HURT

Howard Vaughn, 42, 306 North Parton street, is also in the Santa Ana Valley hospital with serious injuries as the result of a wreck on West Seventeenth street west of Euclid avenue at 8:10 a. m. today. His machine crashed into the rear of a parked car owned by Donald D. McKinnon, 37, 444 North Euclid avenue, Garden Grove, which had been left on the pavement, according to police reports.

The McKinnon machine was knocked 165 feet from the highway and Vaughn was critically hurt. He was rushed to the hospital by passing motorists.

RENOVIZE YOUR HOME

No. 15 of a Series.

Look for No. 16 Tomorrow.

Put a PAINTER to Work!

YOU, as a part of Society, help to pay for ALL unemployment. For in this glorious land, nobody is allowed to starve, and the necessities of life are provided for everybody, even though it has to be done through public tax funds and through charity.

And Y-O-U help pay the bill, in one way or another, for supplying everybody with necessities, and you would not have it otherwise; for after all we are our "brother's keeper."

But Americans as a rule don't want charity, they don't want to be fed from tax funds. They want WORK. They want JOBS, so they can deliver full value for every dollar you pay them.

The more jobs there are, the less "relief funds" from public tax levies is necessary, but if there are not enough jobs to enable Santa Ana families to be self-supporting, then "county relief" becomes necessary as an emergency measure.

So let us use our best efforts to CREATE JOBS for people, and the best place to start, Mr. and Mr. Citizen, is RIGHT IN YOUR OWN HOME!

The house needs painting! So does the garage! A couple of rooms need calmining! Another room needs new paper! New enamel would brighten, delightfully, the kitchen and bath!

The woodwork everywhere is more or less scratched and marred, and a good refinishing would be most timely and add greatly to the appearance of the home.

Call in a painter and put him to work. NOW is the time, with months of clear weather ahead, to have your home refinished in whole or in part.

You will get greater value from your money, and it will help some home-town painter to keep his family with decent self-respect and ability to carry on his obligations of good citizenship.

You will reap direct benefit in greater home pleasures.

Another family will get food for the table and clothes for the children.

And Society—which is YOU—will be spared the expense of supplying their needs through increased taxes.

If you know a reliable painting contractor, who is daily receiving applications for work, call him up and tell him you want to Put a Painter to Work. He will see that you get a fair, reasonable price on the job, and that it is finished to your satisfaction.

Call up any paint store in town. They all have on file the names of several home-town painters who need work and will be glad to get them in touch with you.

Or you can call the National Re-employment Service at the postoffice (4471) or either of the unemployed associations (4823 or 5610) and they will be glad to send a painter to you.

YOU NEED THE WORK DONE! THEY NEED JOBS! LOCAL PAINT STORES HAVE THE MATERIALS! Mix these three ingredients properly and you will be helping your own home, your community, your neighbors, and the Nation.

Public work is months getting started. But YOU can start your painting job NOW, when it is most needed.

NARCOTIC ACT CHARGE HOLDS TWO FOR TRIAL

When three Mexicans of the Corona camp at La Habra were given their preliminary hearings yesterday in the La Habra justice court on charges of possession and sale of marijuana or Indian hemp, two were bound over to the superior court and one was discharged for lack of evidence.

Miguel Ornelas, 50, was released when it was not shown that he was connected with the growing of the "loco weed." Ignacio Torres, 48, and Baldomero Aurora, 58, were held to answer by Judge A. C. Earley following arguments of Deputy District Attorney Harold McCabe. Attorneys Z. R.

West Jr. and W. Maxwell Burke represented the defendants. Torres and Aurora were committed to the county jail when they were unable to post $2500 bail each. McCabe said he would file the information in superior court against the men on Friday.

Constable William Tremaine discovered the patch of marijuana after he and police became suspicious that Mexicans were buying it near La Habra. He watched the patch for more than three weeks before making the arrests when the men came to cultivate it. More than 200 pounds of the weed were cut and destroyed by Tremaine and Police Chief A. J. Collins. One large bundle was kept for evidence in the court proceedings.

Candidates Answer Invitations To Visit Santa Ana

Santa Ana's invitation to have candidates for governor visit this city during their campaigns and make talks mailed last week by City Clerk Ed Vegler, seems to be getting results already.

Vegler had two answers to the letters at the city council last night, one from George Creel, Democrat and the other from C. C. Young, former governor and Republican. Creel pointed out that he was speaking in Santa Ana at the Green Cat cafe on Thursday and would visit here several times. Young thanked the city for the courtesy in inviting him and said he hoped to be able to include Santa Ana in his southern itinerary.

TRADEX PLAN EXPLAINED TO CITY COUNCIL

Tradex, the cooperative system whereby persons exchange commodities and services without the medium of money, was explained to the city council yesterday by H. D. Pottenger, manager of the Santa Ana Tradex branch and Col. Herbert R. Fay, Long Beach official of the organization.

According to Pottenger and Fay, the Tradex plan is nationwide and has been in existence nearly three years. There are more than 250 members in Santa Ana after a month of operation and more members are being recruited daily, they said. The plan is absolutely moneyless and operates with Tradex checks which are handled through the local office and clearinghouse.

The concern of the Tradex officials was how to avoid paying a city license for vocational work, or how to pay the license without plighting with the painter wishing to paint a small sign for a Tradex watchmaker, but being restrained because the sign painter had no license or money to buy one.

City Attorney Downing ruled that as long as the Tradex members confined their work among the fraternal organization, a city license would not be necessary but as soon as any member held himself out for public business, he would need a city license.

It was reported that all the members are kept off the charity rolls, local business is stimulated, and work is provided. Farmers bring in produce, fruit and vegetables to the central store at 211 West Fifth street and receive credit in Tradex, which can be exchanged for gasoline, groceries, legal services, rent, medical attention or anything else offered by other Tradex members. All Tradex checks must be used in Santa Ana.

It was explained that each Tradex check is deposited at the office, where a three per cent deduction is made to provide a balance for bad accounts and to eventually liquidate the checks. Persons applying for the first time are advanced credit according to their needs and agree in return to give their services or products to the organization.

Plan Investigation
Tradex is approved by economists, legal minds and business men, Pottenger said, and is a temporary means of surviving the depression. It creates new business that would not otherwise be done and gives the unemployed person an opportunity to sustain himself and family, he said. It was reported that there are 1700 members in Long Beach and other large chapters in Alhambra, San Pedro, Glendale, Santa Monica and other Southland cities.

Included on the board of directors in Santa Ana are Robert Hockaday, W. Maxwell Burke, Charles Aubrey, Dr. Robert Wade and H. F. Kenny.

The council took the matter under advisement and will have a committee investigate the plan. It is believed that a satisfactory arrangement can be worked out to enable Tradex members to work among themselves without being forced to pay large city licenses in advance, the council intimated.

DELAY ACTION ON ZONING REQUEST

Re-zoning of property at Lincoln and Fruit streets for light industrial business was considered by the city council last night but action was postponed until next week because the planning commission had adjourned before the matter was brought up.

Steele Finley appeared before the board, representing the Dawson and Lewis Gasoline company, which had built a distributing plant on the property. Permission was sought to build a garage on the property, even though the original request to have the property re-zoned had been refused by the commission because it was thought unnecessary to make a change for the type of business proposed several weeks ago. A recommendation will be made next week.

Roy W. Crenshaw, 22 410 1-2 West Fourth street, was given a taxi drivers permit by the council last night, and will drive for the Broadway Cab company.

The new financing plan of the Orange County League of Municipalities was adopted by the council last night. This provides that each city shall pay annual dues of $5 for each 1000 of population.

Surprisers Are Surprised

Practically everybody was surprised at the birthday surprise party given by school officials yesterday in honor of Principal Lyle Mitchell of Frances Willard junior high school.

The biggest surprise, however, was that of the sponsors and guests, when Mitchell failed to appear.

The affair was quietly arranged at the Willard cafeteria yesterday noon, all unknown to the principal. Mrs. Mitchell was invited and everything was made ready to usher in the guest of honor and watch him be surprised.

But the ushering was a total failure. It was found that Mitchell had gone to his ranch to see about something. It was a very nice party, anyway, and Mitchell was much surprised later when he heard about it.

CITY REVENUES, EXCEPTING FINES, SHOW INCREASES

Reports were made to the city council last night by the city recorder, electrical and plumbing inspectors, showing a considerable increase in building activity and a small drop in fines collected in the city court.

Electrical fees collected in May totaled $115.45 as compared to $55.50 the preceding month. Plumbing permit fees were $126.20 and sewer fees $6, making a total of $132.50, as compared to $111.50 in April. The building department collected a total of $152.65 for building and plaster permits, as compared to $117 in April.

The fines collected in police court dropped from $1189 in April to $865 in May, of which $651.50 goes to the street maintenance funds and $213.50 to the general fund.

GEO. CREEL TO ADDRESS MEET HERE THURSDAY

George Creel, resident of San Francisco and candidate for the nomination for governor of California on the Democratic ticket, will address a group of Orange county voters at the Green Cat cafe in Santa Ana Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock. It was announced here today.

Invitations to the meeting, to which the public is invited, were issued by a group of county Democrats headed by H. H. Cotton of San Clemente. Reservations for the dinner are being made at the cafe.

Creel is initiating an active campaign, declaring that the California state administration should be in complete harmony with the national administration's New Deal.

Coming from San Diego Thursday about noon, he will be met by a group of representative supporters, and taken on a brief tour of county towns in the afternoon, returning to Santa Ana for the dinner and meeting in the evening.

APPROPRIATE $90 FOR LEAGUE WORK

Approval of ambitious legislative plans of the California League of Municipalities for the coming month was given by the city council last night with the passing of a resolution appropriating $90 to help carry on the work.

According to a communication from the league, contemplated action includes work on the gas tax allocation to cities, unemployment relief projects, liquor control problems and league representation at the 1935 Legislature.

COUNCIL ACTS ON BUSINESS PERMITS

Two applications for opening new businesses were considered by the city council and planning commission last night, one being referred to a committee and the other denied.

The application of J. C. Benton-stine, 502 East Fourth street, to open a pool hall at that address was not considered by the planning commission since the request did not conflict with the existing zoning and no action could be taken. The application was referred by the council to the chief of police and police commissioner.

The council denied the application of W. B. McNary, 1140 South Main street, to move his garage into a store building at 1248 South Main street and cut a driveway to it, following recommendation of the commission that the property should not be posted for special use.

COUNCIL NOTES

The city council has accepted the invitation of the Construction Industries of Orange County to send one of its members to the first annual banquet of the organization, to be held at 6:30 p. m.

June 12 at the American Legion hall.

A letter was read from the Southern California League of Municipalities, reporting that an organization meeting will be held June 9 at Whittier. The letter was filed and no one will attend, since the council previously has publicly censured the new group and its promoters.

GUYON MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT OF CANDIDACY

L. M. Guyon, who says he is "running for sheriff on a bet that no man can win who is not controlled by the political machine," today made formal announcement of his candidacy.

Guyon is a son of Dr. E. F. Guyon, county physician of Bear Lake county, Idaho. He has been a resident and in business in Orange county for 15 years, he stated.

His platform, said Guyon, will be "justice to all, rich and poor alike." He claims he is the only candidate for sheriff who is not controlled by the political machine. His motto will be "fair play to the prisoners and taxpayers of Orange county."

Guyon said he would not allow any man to be convicted on the testimony of a "stool pigeon" or a paid informer, and would not allow an officer to give false testimony in order to get a conviction.

He said he does not believe in beating a man into submission, and finger-printing him and using it as blackmail against the prisoner after his debt has been paid. Such information, he stated, should be used for the record of that office, and against the prisoner who is charged with a felony. That is according to law, he claimed, also charging that such system is not being used at present.

Therefore if L. M. Guyon is elected sheriff of Orange county,

BETTER GARDENING

By HARRY L. BATESON, F. R. H. S.

PLANTING OF DAHLIAS

No garden is complete without a few dahlias. I will deal at first with soils and fertilizers, and in the planting. The Dahlia should be planted in a hill at least a foot high, to insure good drainage. If the soil is adobe or heavy, it is well to mix some sand in it. A 50-50 mixture is about correct. It is not necessary to mix sand all over the dahlia bed; it is sufficient in the hills. A safe method when digging the soil is to scatter five pounds of lime, working it into the loam.

The middle of April and until the middle of June is a good time at which to plant the tuber. The rows should be four to five feet apart and there should be four feet between the plants. The tuber should be six inches deep in sandy soil and four inches deep in heavy soil. Plant the tubers flat or on an angle. Do not use tubers with broken necks. Dust the tubers with flower of sulphur before planting. Do not use any fertilizer under the tuber.

A top dressing of fertilizer about August and not later than August 15 is necessary. Mix one and a half pounds of raw bone flour, four pounds of sheep manure and half a pound of sulphur of potash, broadcast over 100 square feet. Keep the fertilizer at least six inches from the plant. Do not use nitrate of soda. Cultivate once a week, shallow cultivation is the best. Leave the soil about the plant undisturbed for 12 inches. Draw a little soil up and around the plant at each cultivation. That will furnish new food and protect the surface roots from the sun.

Irrigation once a week is sufficient. If the weather is dry, overhead irrigation is ideal in the early growing season. If thrip and leaf hopper are troublesome, sprinkling should be done every three days, for at least one hour. The thrip and leaf hopper will soon disappear. Stake and tie the dahlias securely or they are apt to fall over after watering, especially if they are carrying a lot of foliage and flowers. There is still plenty of time to plant out dahlia tubers, in Santa Ana and the whole of the southwest.

no man will be finger-printed unless convicted of a felony," his announcement stated. He will cooperate with all churches and schools in an educational program against crime, in running the Orange county jail, Guyon said.

Local Firm Will Build Midget Car

An Orange county entry is soon to take its place among competitors at the Santa Ana Municipal Bowl auto races. George McConnell of the Grand Central garage has been bitten by the midget bug and he is now having a special car built in Los Angeles, which will be known as the Grand Central Special.

McConnell said today that he was making an effort to sign either "Curly" Mills or Mortimore to drive his new entry, which is to be outboard motor powered. It is rumored, however, that it is not likely that the new midget will be finished in time to get to the track for "Race With the Legion" events tomorrow night. McConnell said this morning.

MORE ITINERANTS CARED FOR HERE

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—Although the federal government is spending more money for the relief of indigent transients in California than in any other state, the largest number of out-of-state itinerants of any state in the union are being cared for here, at a cost per individual much less than the national average, according to government figures released today.

California, with 12 per cent of the nation's migratory indigents, is spending 11 per cent of the total national funds for the relief of transients, according to the records, which show that the individual cost for the care of a needy itinerant in this state is $1.2 per cent lower than the national average.

Next to California, Texas has the most serious problem of caring for out-of-state indigents, with 8 per cent of the nation's migratory population under the care of the Federal Transient service in that state, the figures showed.

TOOK PILLS FOR 30 YEARS, THEN CEREAL BROUGHT RELIEF

Mr. Forsythe Endorses ALL-BRAN for Constipation

If you suffer from headaches, loss of appetite and energy or any other of the frequent effects of constipation, read this voluntary letter:

"After taking pills and tablets for about thirty years for constipation, I started to take your ALL-BRAN three times a day according to directions. Today I can eat cheese, and that is binding, and certainly feel fine."—Mr. Ed. Forsythe, Box 219, Youngstown, N. Y.

Science says ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regular habits. In addition, ALL-BRAN is rich in blood-building iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

Isn't this pleasant "cereal way" far more healthful than using patent medicines—so often habit-forming?

Just eat two tablespoons daily. In serious cases take with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

WEST COAST OFFERS DOUBLE SCREEN BILL

Two pictures, "Double Door," taken from the Broadway hit, and "Merry Wives of Reno," come to the screen at the West Coast theater tonight.

"Double Door" is a thrilling, fast moving tale having to do with the efforts of an erratic spinster to obtain control of the fortune of one of New York's richest families. Mary Morris, famed stage actress, heads a distinguished cast which includes Sir Guy Standing and Evelyn Venable.

Woods, Frank McHugh, Hugh Herbert, Roscoe Ates, Ruth Donnelly and Hobart Cavanaugh. Short subjects include a news reel and a Terrytown cartoon, "The Three Bears."

A longer vacation

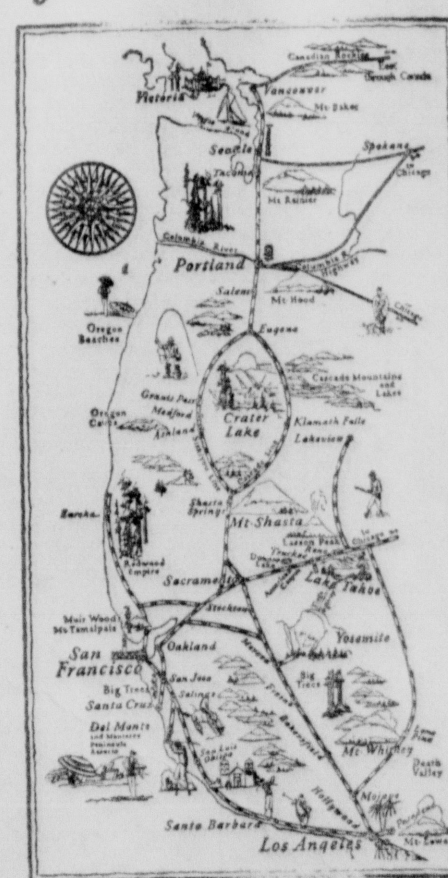

First, because rest and relaxation start when you board the train—not after you get there. Second, because you get there quicker; have more time there. By direct routes and smooth rails, by traveling while you sleep, the train saves you precious vacation hours or days. And every hour of relaxation and play en route or at your goal—pays dividends in health and happiness and memories.

Comfort on the way

Our engineer does the work—you stretch out and relax, read, write, play games, walk about, watch the scenery (more fields, trees, farmhouses, and fewer signs and roadside stands). At meal time, you stroll into the diner, where Southern Pacific serves delicious Table D'Hôte "Meals Select"—complete luncheons and dinners, 80c to $1.25; breakfasts, 70c to 90c—or a la carte if you prefer.

Arrive ready for play

GUYON MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT OF CANDIDACY

L. M. Guyon, who says he is "running for sheriff on a bet that no man can win who is not controlled by the political machine," today made formal announcement of his candidacy.

Guyon is a son of Dr. E. F. Guyon, county physician of Bear Lake county, Idaho. He has been a resident and in business in Orange county for 15 years, he stated.

His platform, said Guyon, will be "justice to all, rich and poor alike." He claims he is the only candidate for sheriff who is not controlled by the political machine. His motto will be "fair play to the prisoners and taxpayers of Orange county."

Guyon said he would not allow any man to be convicted on the testimony of a "stool pigeon" or a paid informer, and would not allow an officer to give false testimony in order to get a conviction.

He said he does not believe in beating a man into submission, and finger-printing him and using it as blackmail against the prisoner after his debt has been paid. Such information, he stated, should be used for the record of that office, and against the prisoner who is charged with a felony. That is according to law, he claimed, also charging that such system is not being used at present.

"Therefore if L. M. Guyon is elected sheriff of Orange county,

By HARRY L. BATESON, F. R. H. S.

PLANTING OF DAHLIAS

No garden is complete without a few dahlias. I will deal at first with soils and fertilizers, and in the planting. The Dahlia should be planted in a hill at least a foot high, to insure good drainage. If the soil is adobe or heavy, it is well to mix some sand in it. A 50-50 mixture is about correct. It is not necessary to mix sand all over the dahlia bed; it is sufficient in the hills. A safe method when digging the soil is to scatter five pounds of lime, working it into the loam.

The middle of April and until the middle of June is a good time at which to plant the tuber. The rows should be four to five feet apart and there should be four feet between the plants. The tuber should be six inches deep in sandy soil and four inches deep in heavy soil. Plant the tubers flat or on an angle. Do not use tubers with broken necks. Dust the tubers with flower of sulphur before planting. Do not use any fertilizer under the tuber.

A top dressing of fertilizer about August and not later than August 15 is necessary. Mix one and a half pounds of raw bone flour, four pounds of sheep manure and half a pound of sulphur of potash, broadcast over 100 square feet. Keep the fertilizer at least six inches from the plant. Do not use nitrate of soda. Cultivate once a week, shallow cultivation is the best. Leave the soil about the plant undisturbed for 12 inches. Draw a little soil up and around the plant at each cultivation. That will furnish new food and protect the surface roots from the sun.

Irrigation once a week is sufficient. If the weather is dry, overhead irrigation is ideal in the early growing season. If thrips and leaf hopper are troublesome, sprinkling should be done every three days, for at least one hour. The thrip and leaf hopper will soon disappear. Stake and tie the dahlias securely or they are apt to fall over after watering, especially if they are carrying a lot of foliage and flowers. There is still plenty of time to plant out dahlia tubers, in Santa Ana and the whole of the southwest.

BOWL GAME POSTPONED

BURN GASOLINE TO DRY FIELD; ERRINGTON ILL

The Santa Ana-Huntington Beach night baseball game was indefinitely postponed by Santa Ana officials late this afternoon. The Bowl infield, heavily wet by last night's rain, failed to respond to all-day treatment. No date has been set for the contest.

Barring heavy rain early tonight, the Santa Ana-Huntington Beach baseball game, epic battle of the National Night league's first quarter, will be played as scheduled in the Municipal Bowl at 8 o'clock.

Last night's storm, delivering nearly half-an-inch of moisture here, did little damage to the park, although pools of water an inch or more deep were left back of the plate, along the first and third base lines and in left field where the auto race track curves into the ball field.

Joe Rodgers

Stadium caretakers said they could drain the water, puddles at water, and dry the infield with gasoline. Should another severe storm develop between 4 o'clock and game-time, however, the contest would be in jeopardy, officials added.

Tonight's contest is one of the most important of the first half schedule. Weather permitting, the attendance figures to be nearly the largest of the season. Huntington Beach is leading the league by a full game, but if Santa Ana defeats the Oilers, and Anaheim, Torrance and Westminster all win in outside games, four clubs will be deadlocked for first place with only a step behind. The clubs start the second quarter of the race later this week.

Jim Coates will be on the ridge for the Stars, while Frank Sabella will pitch for Huntington Beach. "Benny" Wilcox for Santa Ana and Merv Lower for the Oilers will be the other half of the battery.

Joe Rodgers, Huntington Beach's aggressive manager, says his club is fighting mad as a result of its defeat by Westminster and will come into the Bowl determined to "shoot the works." He will start his usual lineup—Bob Smith at first base, "Hen" Thierly at second, Bill McKinley at third, Rodgers himself at shortstop, and Charley Zaby, Orville Schuchardt and Pete Osborn in the outfield. Rodgers rates the latter trio as the best in night ball. Thierly, McKinley and Zaby are the new faces in Oiler uniforms. Thierly played at Olive last week. McKinley was not in the league. Zaby performed for Anaheim.

Santa Ana's lineup and batting order remains the same. Manager Bill Cole announced. The Stars are going to beat down themselves, Cole cracks, because they figure this is their big chance to get somewhere in the flag hunt. Cole says young Coates is the best pitcher in the league, and will prove it tonight.

As far as could be learned today, other association games also will be held as scheduled.

"Fuzzy" Errington, Westminster's great pitcher, is in bed with pleurisy, complicated by tonsillitis, and is lost to the Flyers for at least a week, so Ray Hodgson will appear in his first National league contest as a gunner at Long Beach. The Flyers have signed Bill Sweet, formerly of Olive, to replace Hodgson at first base but Sweet will not be eligible tonight as "Tuffy" Tyrrell will be at the bag.

Anaheim should have no trouble against Fullerton, but Olive will extend Torrance if Rudy Heman is right.

The standings:

NATIONAL NIGHT LEAGUE
	W.	L.	Pct.
Huntington Beach	5	1	.833
Westminster	4	2	.667
Anaheim	4	2	.667
Torrance	3	3	.500
Santa Ana	3	3	.500
Olive	3	3	.500
Fullerton	2	4	.333
Long Beach	1	5	.167

Tonight's Games
Huntington Beach at Santa Ana; Westminster at Long Beach; Olive at Torrance; Anaheim at Fullerton.

ANGELS WOULD SPLIT RACE IF MEN REWARDED

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—(UP)—The Los Angeles Angels are willing to split the Coast league schedule provided the players find the venture profitable financially.

Some reward should be presented the Angels for hopping so far out in front of the other teams, Angel officials feel, before they agree to surrender their leadership and start a new campaign in mid-season. The reward, it is felt, should come from the league treasury.

"It will be all right with us if they want to split the season," said Business Manager Oscar Reichow. "But we think our boys deserve a purse for their efforts so far this year. We have assembled a fine ball club and the boys have hustled from the first day of the schedule."

Reichow is wasting little sympathy on hapless opponents who have lost 25 consecutive games to the fast-traveling Angels.

"What probably would be better than a split season would be for the other clubs to go out and strengthen for the rest of the year," Reichow said. "Let them get some real ball players. That's what we did and you can see the results by scanning the standing of the teams."

Impartial observers, however, take a more lenient view of the situation. They regard the Angels as a team of major league caliber and one that scarcely could be matched throughout the circuit.

The Angels have won 19 of their last 20 games and have four series remaining before reaching the midpoint in this year's race.

Matchmaker "Bud" Rutledge today announced the group of preliminary bouts that will support the Art Breaux-Dusty Davidson main event at the Orange County Athletic club Thursday night.

Carmen Tullio, originally scheduled to meet Leo Lopez in a rematch, instead will oppose Paddy Guillen of San Bernardino in the five-round semi-windup.

The seemingly unbeatable Bill Wana, Westminster's crack middleweight, goes against Paul Williams in the special event, another five-rounder.

Other bouts, all three rounds: George Crouch, Ebony club, vs. Dan Lopez, Los Angeles, 118 pounds; Jimmy Williams, Ebony club, vs. Paul Garcia, Compton college, 145 pounds; Gil La Mare, Ebony club, vs. Leo Lopez, El Modena, 112 pounds;

Louis Westbrook, Ebony club, vs. Jack Curley, Long Beach, 140 pounds; Johnny Grigo, Ebony club, vs. Paul Moreno, Garden Grove, 112 pounds;

Louis Marshall, Ebony club, vs. Benny Gomez, Elmer, 170 pounds; Eddie Jackson, Ebony club, vs. Tommy Astrada, Norwalk, 145 pounds;

Clair Thomas, Ebony club, vs. Manuel Rodriguez, Los Angeles, 120 pounds.

The Ebony club stable is composed exclusively of Negro boxers.

As far as could be learned today, other association games also will be held as scheduled.

MERION COURSE EASY? NO. SAY 'OPEN' PLAYERS

BY STUART CAMERON (United Press Sports Editor)

ARMORE, Pa., June 5.—"Chick" Evans' record 286 for the National Open, starting Thursday at this Philadelphia suburb, is as "safe as if it was in his mother's arms," according to Gene Sarazen, favorite to win this year's three-day test.

"This idea that Merion is easy is nothing more than the bunk," Sarazen, twice winner of the Open title, said today. "Craig Wood talks about Merion being a spoon-and-nibble course. I don't see how he figures."

"The true test that par is only 70, and that the 6994 yardage is some 500 yards under most Open championship courses, but Merion is no pipe and this isn't my opinion only, either."

Walter Hagen, another former champion who, like Sarazen, is a favorite in the almost current title test, agreed.

"This talk of needing 280—something isn't anything new," says Hagen, who ought to know. "You heard it at Inverness and Fresh Meadow and almost every year. Well, here's what I'd do if the U. S. G. A. would let me. I'd take 292 right now and spend the next four days on the clubhouse veranda."

Johnny Goodman of Omaha, the defending champion, and Lawson Little of San Francisco, winner of this year's British matreux, played their first practice rounds last night. They arrived in Boston from Europe yesterday, spent the afternoon in Manhattan at a dinner table discussion and was first run in 1780. It might have been called the Bunbury Stakes had not a flip of a coin decided the 12th Earl of Derby should give his name to it instead of Sir Charles Bunbury.

The first race had only nine starters and a crowd of fewer than 500 saw the race. Tomorrow there will be better than half-a-million spectators.

Without lifting a finger, the First National bank's basketball team today moved into undisputed possession of first place in the Santa Ana City league.

Maybe bankers stick together. Anyway, it was another such establishment, the Commercial National bank, which put the First Nationals in front by defeating the Elks, 1-0, at the Municipal Bowl last night. The previously unbeaten Elks had been tied for first place with the First Nationals.

"Baldy" Foltz outpitched Claude Gregory in the dust which slowed down the B.P.O.E. representatives. Foltz allowed only two hits, was in danger only in the fifth inning when Southworth's single, an error on Styling and a sacrifice put runners on third and second with two out. Daley skied to left for the final out.

Gregory hurled fully as ably as Foltz until the last of the sixth when Appleby led off with a double and scored on a couple of wild pitches.

The curtain-raiser produced another shutout, the strong Santa Ana 20-30 club blanking the lowly South Methodist Juniors, 12-0. Fanning nine, Joe Ochoa gave the churchmen only four widely scattered singles. His teammates attacked Pitcher Bates savagely, climaxing their assault with a six-run rally in the sixth. Lawrence Lutz, California football star, cracked a homer during the inning.

Thursday night's doubleheader pairs Weber's bakery and the First Nationals at 7 o'clock, the Union Oilers and M. E. South Seniors at 8. The box score:

CHICAGO, June 5.—(UP)—Barney Ross, Chicago boy who holds three boxing titles, will not fight again for two or three months, his co-managers, Sam Pian and Art Winch, said today.

Joe Foley, general manager of the Chicago stadium, is endeavoring to promote a return bout between Ross and Jimmy McLarnin in September.

As far as I can remember there has always been an undercurrent of jealousy and ill-feeling among the members of the team," says Lott.

By HARRY GRAYSON

James Emory Foxx is positive he will wreck Babe Ruth's home run record of 60.

"All other marks go, so why shouldn't that one? If I don't better it this season, I'll do it in the next real good one I enjoy," he says.

The Foxx ran home runs home 58 times in 1932, and led major league mace men with 48 last year.

"It would be well for someone to top Ruth's total. Something like that is required to bring out the trade. It is the long-range hitters who keep the fans on the edge of their seats."

"Interest in baseball hasn't lessened. The game obtained a flying start in the matter of attendance this spring in all cities except St. Louis and Washington. But some of us will have to do the unusual if we are to keep the customers coming. They simply haven't got the money, and won't turn out for anything ordinary."

There was a difference of $15,000 between the Foxx and Connie Mack when they opened negotiations in February, and the Athletics' big first baseman merits more than the $17,500 he obtained in a compromise.

There are several players whose salaries exceed that of the Foxx, more than one by a surplus of $10,000. The American league's leading batsman says Mack frankly told him that under current conditions the Philadelphia club could not afford to pay him what he worth.

The Foxx unquestionably would fare better financially as a member of the vastly richer New York or Boston club, but takes his position philosophically. There is just a trace of undercurrent of resentment against Mack among the Athletics, due to a wholesale slashing of salaries, but the Foxx is too level-headed to waste time sulking.

While the foremost right-handed hitting home run hammerer of all time is confident that the left-handed Ruth's maximum will not stand, he agrees with those who do not believe the Bambino's fattest contract—for $80,000 in 1930—ever will be approached again.

The story of the Foxx reads like a scenario. A champion home run hitter discovered a champion home run hitter, for it was J. Franklin Baker who recommended his husky young neighbor down there in Maryland to his old mentor, Mack.

Baker earned the sobriquet, Home Run, on the strength of nine in 1911 and two more against the Giants in the world series that fall. He led the junior loop procession with the staggering aggregate of 12 in 1913, long before they stuffed the sphere with cork and rubber.

"The ball certainly must have been dead then, for Frank could smack one as hard as anybody I ever saw," beams his protegee.

FOLLOWED DAD'S FOOTSTEPS
The Foxx, who harnessed six-horse teams on his father's farm at the age of 9, grew up in a baseball atmosphere. His dad, Dell Foxx, was a catcher, and father and son were teammates in many games.

The Foxx was a remarkable all-around athlete in high school, where he twice ran the century under 10 seconds. His 22 3/5 in 1921 remains the high school record for the 220 in the Old Line state. The young Foxx high jumped 5 feet 10 inches, and scintillated in basketball and soccer. The only reason he did not play football is that it was not played the small rural schools down yonder.

Rogers Hornsby and Harry Hellmann were his boyhood idols, and he speaks with all the assurance of Hornsby.

Ruth's mark of 60 home runs isn't at all safe with an eye and wrist action like that of the former plowboy playing around the plate. Not as long as there is a pair of jackrabbits in each ball, at least.

WARSTLER AND MCNAIR
Harold Warstler attributes much of the good fortune he and Eric McNair are enjoying as a double play combination to their trying to keep the ball in sight all the time. "I always see the ball when it is hit to McNair," explains the Rabbit, who has been the live wire of the Athletics' infield since a charity horse put Dib Williams in the dugout during the city series with the Phils. "Some shortstops whip the ball to second basemen so fast that they lose sight of it, and that fraction of a second is enough to give the runner a chance to plunk his spikes in first base ahead of the throw." When Connie Mack obtained Warstler from the Red Sox, he intended to ship him to the Portland Coasters. But now Philadelphia goes all the way back to Eddie Collins and Jack Barry in recalling a pair of keystone killers like Warstler and McNair.

Imagine the tribulations of American association pitchers facing the Millers in that Minneapolis park with the short right field fence. Not satisfied with having Choe Hauser, who bids fair to break his all baseball record of 69 home runs, Mike Kelley has landed Buzz Arlett from Birmingham. Arlett is such a sorry fly-chaser that he was sent south by Baltimore after leading the International league in runs batted in with 146, in home runs with 39, and finishing third in hitting with .343.

FOUND IN LIVELY STABLE
Trainer Bob Smith comes up with one pleasant surprise after another for Mrs. Isabel Dodge Sloane, owner of the phenomenal successful Brookmeade Stable. Mrs. Sloane, keenly interested in breeding her own champion, did not know she owned Reliance, dam of Black Gift, until two weeks ago, when Mack Garner rode the 2-year-old to a smashing five-furlong victory over a fine field of juveniles at Jamaica in the remarkable time of 1:51 1/5.

"Where is the dam of that colt?" she inquired, enthusiastically. "Right in that barn," replied the veteran Smith, pointing to the Brookmeade quarters. Smith traced Reliance to a lively stable in Washington, and purchased the mare for $250, following a splendid performance by her son at Havre de Grace.

Last fall when young Leon Carter, now superintendent of Mrs. Sloane's farm at Upperville, Va., could not afford to keep Black Gift and Reliance, Smith arranged for the colt to run under the white and royal blue crosses of the Brookmeade string, and Reliance was sold as a saddle mare.

BOWL BALL GAME POSTPONED

BURN GASOLINE TO DRY FIELD: ERRINGTON ILL

The Santa Ana-Huntington Beach night baseball game was indefinitely postponed by Santa Ana officials late this afternoon. The Bowl infield, heavily wet by last night's rain, failed to respond to all-day treatment. No date has been set for the contest.

Barring heavy rain early tonight, the Santa Ana-Huntington Beach baseball game, epic battle of the National Night league's first quarter, will be played as scheduled in the Municipal Bowl at 8 o'clock.

Last night's storm, delivering nearly half-an-inch of moisture here, did little damage to the park, although pools of water an inch or more deep were left back of the plate, along the first and third base lines and in left field where the auto race track curves into the ball field.

Stadium caretakers said they could drain these puddles of water, and dry the infield with gasoline. Should another severe storm develop between 4 o'clock and game-time, however, the contest would be in jeopardy, officials added.

Tonight's contest is one of the most important of the first half schedule. Weather permitting, the attendance figures to be nearly the largest of the season. Huntington Beach is leading the league by a full game, but if Santa Ana defeats the Oilers, and Anaheim, Torrance and Westminster all win in outside games, four clubs will be deadlocked for first place with only a step behind. The clubs start the second quarter of the race later this week.

Jim Coates will be on the ridge for the Stars, while Frank ("Chico") Sabella will pitch for Huntington Beach. "Benny" Wilcox for Santa Ana and Merv Lower for the Oilers will be the other half of the battery.

Joe Rodgers, Huntington Beach's aggressive manager, says his club is fighting mad as a result of its defeat by Westminster and will come into the Bowl determined to "shoot the works." He will start his usual lineup—Bob Smith at first base, "Hen" Thiers at second, Bill McKinley at third, Rodgers himself at shortstop, and Charley Zaby, Orville Schuchardt and Pete Osborn in the outfield. Rodgers rates the latter trio as the best in night ball.

Thiers, McKinley and Zaby are the new faces in Oiler uniforms. Thiers played at Olive last term, McKinley was not in the league. Zaby performed for Anaheim.

Santa Ana's lineup and batting order remains the same. Manager Bill Cole announced. The Stars are going to beat down themselves, Cole cracks, because they figure this is their big chance to get somewhere in the flag hunt. Cole says young Coates is the best pitcher in the league, and will prove it tonight.

As far as could be learned today, other association games also will be held as scheduled.

"Fuzzy" Errington, Westminster's great pitcher, is in bed with pleurisy, complicated by tonsillitis, and is lost to the Flyers for at least a week, so Ray Hodgson will appear in his first National league contest as a gunner at Long Beach. The Flyers have signed Bill Sweet, formerly of Olive, to replace Hodgson at first base but Sweet will not be eligible tonight so "Tuffy" Tyrnell will be at the bag.

Anaheim should have no trouble against Fullerton, but Olive will extend Torrance if Rudy Hernan is right.

The standings:

NATIONAL NIGHT LEAGUE	W.	L.	Pct.
Huntington Beach	5	0	.333
Westminster	4	1	.286
Anaheim	4	1	.286
Torrance	4	1	.286
Santa Ana	2	2	.500
Olive	2	2	.500
Fullerton	1	3	.250

Tonight's Games

Huntington Beach at Santa Ana; Westminster at Long Beach; Olive at Torrance; Anaheim at Fullerton.

ANGELS WOULD SPLIT RACE IF MEN REWARDED

LOS ANGELES, June 5.—(UP)—The Los Angeles Angels are willing to split the Coast league schedule profitable financially.

Some reward should be presented the Angels for hopping so far out in front of the other teams. Angel officials feel, before they agree to surrender their leadership and start a new campaign in mid-season. The reward, it is felt, should come from the league treasury.

"It will be all right with us if they want to split the season," said Business Manager Oscar Reelchow. "But we think our boys deserve a purse for their efforts so far this year. We have assembled a fine ball club and the boys have hustled from the first day of the schedule. That is why they are out in front."

Reelchow is wasting little sympathy on hapless opponents who have lost 25 consecutive series to the fast-traveling Angels.

"What probably would be better than a split season would be for the other clubs to go out and strengthen for the rest of the year," Reelchow said. "Let them get some real ball players. That's what we did and you can see the results by scanning the standing of the teams."

Impartial observers, however, take a more lenient view of the situation. They regard the Angels as a team of major league caliber and one that scarcely could be matched throughout the circuit.

The Angels have won 19 of their last 20 games and have four series remaining before reaching the midpoint in this year's race.

THURSDAY'S BOXING LINEUP COMPLETED

Matchmaker "Bud" Rutledge today announced the group of preliminary bouts that will support the Art Breaux-Dusty Davidson main event at the Orange County Athletic club Thursday night.

The seemingly unbeatable Bill Wana, Westminster's crack middleweight, goes against Paul Wilkins in the special event, another five-rounder.

The Ebony club stable is composed exclusively of Negro boxers.

MERION COURSE EASY? NO. SAY 'OPEN' PLAYERS

BY STUART CAMERON
(United Press Sports Editor)

ARDMORE, Pa., June 5.—"Chick" Evans' record 286 for the National Open, starting Thursday at this Philadelphia suburb, is as "safe as if it was in its mother's arms," according to Gene Sarazen, favorite to win this year's three-day test.

"This idea that Merion is easy is nothing more than the bunk," Sarazen twice winner of the Open title, said today. "Craig Wood talks about Merion being a spoon-and-ribbit course. I don't see how he figures."

"It's true that par is only 70, and that the 6894 yardage is some 500 yards under most Open championship courses, but Merion is no pipe and this isn't my opinion only, either."

Walter Hagen, another former champion who, like Sarazen, is a favorite in the almost current title test, agreed.

"Something isn't anything new," says Hagen, who ought to know. "You heard it at Inverness and Fresh Meadow and almost every year. Well, here's a what I'd do if the U. S. C. A. would let me. I'd take 292 right now and spend the next four days on the clubhouse veranda."

Johnny Goodman of Omaha, the defending champion, and Lawson Little of San Francisco, winner of this year's British matinee, played their first practice rounds last night. They arrived in Boston from Europe yesterday, spent the afternoon in Manhattan arriving at Philadelphia in time for a short round in the evening.

Goodman, scoring 42 for nine holes, expressed the opinion 288 will be the low figure while Little, who shot a 42, thinks 285 will be the winning number.

A calm and impartial study of the Merion layout leads to agreement with the Sarazens and Hagens. Not one of the 4-par or 5-par holes of the layout is so sharply angled as to suggest the spoon or brassy rather than the deliver. Of all the tenth has the sharpest dog-leg but a player can drive over 300 off the tee and still be safe if he shoots straight.

But the long hole really comes into his own on several holes, notably the second, where he can hang out for as much of the 535 yards as he cares to, and the fourth which totals 595 yards and offers no invitation for a spoon off the tee.

FULLERTON SCORES FIFTH COUNTY WIN

Fullerton was still leading the Orange County Night league today, undefeated after five rounds of baseball. The surprising uncounted team, a "dark horse" entry that came in only as a replacement for Santa Ana's Green Cats, moved down Huntington Beach last night, 8-4. Donaldson and Reno hit successive homers in the seventh off Sam Samsel, 17-year-old uncle of "Chico" Sabella who was on the mound for Huntington Beach.

Anaheim humbled Olive, 8-0, with Benner turning in a beautiful one-hit effort for the victors. Jack Dugan returned to form as Orange routed Long Beach, 9-3. Brea held second place by slaughtering Irvine, 14-1. Roberts hit two homers for Brea. Irvine's only counter was a circuit smash by Horace Soars.

The scores:

Fullerton	W.	L.	Pct.
Fullerton	5	0	.333
Huntington Beach	4	1	.286
Batteries: Fullerton—Tucker and N. Struck; Huntington Beach—Samsel and Salisbury.

Anaheim	W.	L.	Pct.

Los Angeles, June 5.—(UP)—Young Peter Jackson, gunning for a match with Barney Ross, will strive to advance his claims tonight by scoring a victory over Kid Azteca, Mexican welterweight champion, in their scheduled 10-round encounter at the Olympic

While most agreed Jackson likely would win, the fight was expected to be close in view of Azteca's two victories over Cefernio Garcia and another pair over Eddie Frisco who held Jackson to a draw in Seattle.

Promoter Lou Daro hopes to match the winner with Ross, especially if the dusky Jackson is the decision-holder.

ENGLISH DERBY HAS HISTORY

500 Saw First Race in 1780; 500,000 Tomorrow

PUB-KEEPER GETS BEST SEAT

BY HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

EPSON DOWNS, England, June 5.—A few facts, odd and otherwise, on the Derby to be run here tomorrow.

The Derby was originated at a dinner table discussion and was first run in 1780. It might have been called the Bunbury Stakes had not a flip of a coin decided the 12th Earl of Derby should give his name to it instead of Sir Charles Bunbury.

The first race had only nine starters and a crowd of fewer than 500 saw the race. Tomorrow there will be better than half-a-million spectators.

Of all flat races, the Derby is not so flat after all. Horses begin to climb from the start and in less than a mile they are as high as Nelson's monument at Trafalgar Square. Before the final brief race to the post there is a drop of about 100 feet.

King Edward, with Minors in 1909, was the only British monarch ever to win the race, and then only by a nose. There have been two dead heats—Cadland and the Colonel in 1828, and Saint Gaggatien and Harvester in 1884.

Whereas only one filly won the Kentucky Derby, five fillies have copied the Derby here.

The richest Derby was in 1927, when Call Boy earned better than $60,000.

The smallest horse ever to win was Little Wonder, who stood 14 hands. The race was once won by a "ringer" in 1884. Running Race being first in, but investigation proved he was really a four-year-old old named Macabacus.

The king does not have the best seat at the Derby. That honor goes to Mrs. Emma Clark, who owns the hotel ("pub") near the winning post. By moving from room to room Emma is able to watch the entire show from end to end to the finish. She refuses to leave rooms for Derby Day.

Only three Americans—Piere Lorillard, Boss Croker and William C. Whitney—ever won the Derby. Two horses won in their first appearances on a race track—Anato in 1838 and Merry Hampton in 1842.

King George is still trying to win a Derby. His nearest approach came in 1913 when his Amer led in the stretch only to have a woman jump over the rail under Amer's feet. Amer stumbled and the woman died.

No woman ever sent a winner to the post, but Lady Jane Douglas won a "War Derby" at Newmarket in 1918. The Newmarket race was substituted, as Epsom Downs was a military camp.

The highest price ever paid on a Derby winner was 100 to 1 on Signor Rinata in 1908. Jeddah in 1898 and Aboyer in 1913.

Lightning and Thunder were given credit for Saint Amant's victory in 1904. He was a poor horse with little of a record, but just as the barrier went up a terrific storm broke and he was so frightened he won by a length in record time.

Great fortunes have been won and lost on the race, and there are old families living almost in poverty in England today because their ancestors wagered too much on Derby Day.

By HARRY GRAYSON

James Emory Fox is positive he will wreck Babe Ruth's home run record of 60.

"All other marks go, so why shouldn't that one? If I don't better it this season, I'll do it in the next real good one I enjoy," he says.

The Fox ran home runs home 58 times in 1932, and led major league macemen with 48 last year.

"It would be well for someone to top Ruth's total. Something like that is required to bring out the trade. It is the long-range hitters who keep the fans on the edge of their seats."

"Interest in baseball hasn't lessened. The game obtained a flying start in the matter of attendance this spring in all cities except St. Louis and Washington. But some of us will have to do the unusual if we are to keep the customers coming. They simply haven't got the money, and won't turn out for anything ordinary."

There are several players whose salaries exceed that of the Fox. More than one by a surplus of $10,000. The American league's leading batsman says Mack frankly told him that under current conditions the Philadelphia club could not afford to pay him what he's worth.

The Fox unquestionably would fare better financially as a member of the vastly richer New York or Boston club, but takes his position philosophically. There is just a trace of undercurrent of resentment against Mack among the Athletics, due to a wholesale slashing of salaries, but the Fox is too level-headed to waste time sulking.

GOLDEN DAYS GONE
While the foremost right-handed hitting home run hammer of all time is confident that the left-handed Ruth's maximum will not stand, he agrees with those who do not believe the Bambino's fattest contract—for $50,000 in 1930—ever will be approached again.

The story of the Fox reads like a scenario. A champion home run hitter discovered a champion home run hitter, for it was J. Franklin Baker who recommended his husky young neighbor down there in Maryland to his old mentor, Mack.

Baker earned the sobriquet, Home Run, on the strength of nine in 1911 and two more against the Giants in the world series that fall. He led the junior loop procession with the staggering aggregate of 12 in 1912, long before they stuffed the sphere with cork and rubber.

"The ball certainly must have been dead then, for Frank could smack one as hard as anybody I ever saw," beams his protegee.

FOLLOWED DAD'S FOOTSTEPS
The Fox, who harnessed six-horse teams on his father's farm at the age of 9, grew up in a baseball atmosphere. His dad, Dell Fox, was a catcher, and father and son were teammates in many games.

The Fox was a remarkable all-around athlete in high school, where he twice ran the century under 20 seconds. His 22 1/2 in 1921 remains the high school record for the 220 in the Old Line state. The young Fox high jumped 5 feet 10 inches, and scintillated in basketball and soccer. The only reason he did not play football is that it was not played the small rural schools down yonder.

Rogers Hornsby and Harry Holman were his boyhood idols, and he speaks with all the assurance of Hornsby.

Ruth's mark of 60 home runs isn't at all safe with an eye and wrist action like that of the former plowboy playing around the plate. Not as long as there is a pair of jackrabbits in each ball, at least.

CONGRESS

The existing confusion in Congress is not just ordinary Congressional confusion. It was started for a purpose.

Most of it can be traced to a well-organized inside campaign to defeat the Wagner Labor Board Bill and the Home Mortgage Bill. That seems to be the real explanation for the recent Republican filibuster in the House, although it is being warmly denied. Two very influential lobbies started out to kill these bills some weeks ago. Instead of issuing statements and conducting the usual lobbying campaign, these two went to work on the sly with certain Congressmen to create a situation whereby those two measures would be dropped until next session.

ORGANIZERS

The campaign against the Labor Bill is being led by an association of manufacturers and the Congressmen with whom they deal. The strategy against the Home Mortgage Bill is being planned by certain Congressmen supposed to be privately connected with building and loan associations.

The Democratic leaders know what is going on, but they are not altogether unsympathetic with the campaign. At least they are not personally strong for the two bills.

While President Roosevelt was away, they agreed among themselves that the future of those two measures was up to him. They will do nothing until they get orders from the White House.

If they had their own way, they would wind up the session June 8 and toss both bills in the waste basket. They probably will not have their way.

GRAVY

The fact that Mr. Roosevelt is considering putting his ace administrator, Harry Hopkins, in charge of the mortgage set-up shows what important use the White House hopes to make of it. It probably will be badly hooded even more than the NRA was.

The man who wrote the bill for the administration is Winfield Riffer, of the Central Statistical Board. He is not a brain trust or a college professor, but, until recently, was an economic adviser for the Federal Reserve Board.

Working through several Senators, Frank Walker's outfit believes it has fixed everything so the mortgage bill will get through the Senate. They are having trouble again with Chairman Steagall of the House Banking Committee. He does not play ball closely with the administration and no one knows what he will do next.

There is no question but what the quiet Congressional resistance to the Mortgage Bill is sincere. No one can deny that the bill would encourage home owners to go into debt for renovating and new home construction.

One Republican leader went around the floor of the House the other day advising all his friends to get "some of the mortgage gravy for yourselves if this bill goes through."

LEAK

The AAA and the press have started a little private feud. When the sugar allotment figures were announced the other day, newsmen were gathered into a room for a conference. An arrangement was made so the news would not be sent out until the conference was over and the matter thoroughly explained.

The conference lasted about half an hour, but when the newsmen dashed to their wires, they found the figures were out in the financial district in New York and actually had reached Cuba.

It was found that some one in the AAA had leaked the figures to representatives of sugar concerns who spread it broadcast, scooping the press by half an hour or more.

WAR DEBTS

All politicians privately admired Mr. Roosevelt's war debt message. It was so shrewd a handling of a dangerous political issue that even the Republicans in both houses of Congress had to express approval of it.

On the other hand, the private comment on Mr. Roosevelt's Gettysburg speech was rather caustic. The general opinion was that it was unclear, political and probably the worst he has made.

RADIO

The movement to impose further regulations on radio is not getting anywhere. The administration privately is opposed. It passed word down the line to kill the proposed amendment to the communications bill requiring radio to give 25 per cent of its time to educational and religious subjects.

The idea smacks too much of censorship.

NOTES

Mrs. Roosevelt has cut down considerably on her writing and other activities during the past month. The First Lady wrote nothing new and made only one out-of-town excursion.

Vice President Garner continues to be more influential in the backstage maneuvers over legislation than any vice president has been before. He even lent a hand in the ousting of Prof. Thorp.

Mr. Roosevelt felt sadly about letting Dr. Thorp go and has made arrangements to get him a private job which is better than the one he left as head of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.

Assistant State Secretary Sayre worked closely with Senator Walsh to get him to come out for the administration tariff bill. His conversion brought hosannas from the administration inner circle because Walsh comes from a strong tariff state.

Jerome Frank of the AAA called in newsmen the other day and asked them what was wrong with the proposed administrative amendments to the Agricultural Adjustment Act. They told him and he rewrote the amendments in accordance with their suggestions.

CUBA

The Cuban powder keg is due for another big time explosion within ninety days or less. Local authorities report that Mendieta—never strong outside Havana—is losing ground rapidly there. Our moral support—recognition—has been no help. The Cubans were willing to forgive his friendliness for the U. S. only on consideration of prospective cash aid from Uncle Sam—which hasn't developed and probably won't.

San Martin is now definitely cast in the role of "deliverer." His "martyrdom to Yankee imperialism" has been skillfully used to stir a rising tide of popular emotional support. The leftist elements are massing behind him—some to promote a "liberal" regime and others to use him as a stepping stone to Communism. His restoration to power would be the signal for adoption of left wing policies more drastic than anywhere in the world outside of Russia.

The end of the sugar grinding season will speed the crisis by depriving thousands more Cuban workers of their meager living. They have no hope of picking up other jobs.

San Martin backers aim to recruit these new jobless en masse. If successful the explosion becomes a question of when—not whether.

RELEASED

Abolition of the Platt Amendment was a last-ditch try to strengthen Mendieta's faltering grip. It was designed to give him credit for gratifying Cuba's fondest wish—freedom from the threat of American intervention.

It won't work. Any gratitude felt toward Mendieta or our government will be a mere anesthetic to the mountain of economic and nationalistic discontent. The possibility—however remote—of having to cope with U. S. armed forces has been a potent factor in curbing revolutionary exuberance. Now this emergency brake is released.

New York interests with Cuban stakes feel sunk. They had previously resigned themselves to losing all income and suffering property damage. Now they figure they might as well kiss their whole property investment a permanent good-bye.

Establishment of the principle of non-intervention will also have repercussions in other small Latin countries. Experts predict fresh ruckuses in consequence — with an anti-American slant—in Haiti, San Domingo and Nicaragua.

REMOTE

Major league market operators don't intend to be deprived of their favorite pastime by exchange regulation. They're busy dishing a system to handle pools by remote control. Where necessary exchanges abroad will be induced to add pet American stocks to their listings.

Orders will be executed here from foreign sources under American guidance. The boys figure they can jiggle stocks as effectively that way as now—with the help of lightning fast cable facilities—and give the regulating commission the raspberry if it objects. Its only recourse would be suspension of trading in a stock that acted funny—and that would hurt innocent stockholders at home more than the manipulators. It's significant that Stock Exchange firms with foreign branches are forming an association of their own. This project is approved by Exchange authorities.

CUTS

Wall Street brokers are staging the most direct attack yet on the NRA—minimum wage principle. They're hopeful of selling Blue Eagle authorities on the need for wage cuts—even in the lowest brackets—as the only alternative to further wholesale firings. They claim they can prove their business can't stand cost cuts under federal regulation.

Of course the number of workers affected is small and the brokerage business is a minor element in the national picture. But if the minimum wage hike springs a leak—however small—what's to prevent major industry from crashing through the same hole? The brokers are pursuing their own interests—but they're also the spearhead for a much more significant assault on minimum wages in general.

Insiders estimate that 6000 out of a normal 30,000 brokerage employees will soon be out of jobs. Payouts of 10 to 33 per cent are already effective for those who get $35 a week and up. Nearly half of brokerage house personnel is operating on the stagger system.

EXCHANGE

The Stock Exchange itself has held aloof from the epidemic of personnel cuts indulged in by its members.

It has more employees now than it had on August 1st last year. The machinery is still geared up to four million share days—in case

SET METHODS FOR EMPLOYING CITY WORKERS

New standards and procedure in the hiring of city employees were set up by the city council yesterday, following a heated discussion at both sessions regarding two firemen who went to work June 1 without the approval of the entire city council.

It was charged by Councilmen Paul Witmer, E. G. Warner, A. F. LeGaye and A. C. Hasenjaeger that Sam Fink and Frank Cory had been named on the fire department by Fire Commissioner William Penn and Fire Chief John Luxembourg without the names having first been brought before the council in the usual manner.

It was further alleged that the new plan of having old and new employees fill out a personnel record had been disregarded in the two appointments, which directly opposed the council's policy of desiring to know the background and qualifications of employees.

Misunderstanding
Luxembourg was called before the board for an explanation, since Penn is on a vacation trip. The chief said he understood that Fink and Cory had been hired by the entire council to fill vacancies caused by the recent death of two firemen and the resignation of another last year. He said that two men were needed during the summer, when vacations were being taken. He also said that he had not been consulted as to the appointments and would not have hired them himself.

LeGaye was emphatic in this regard when he declared that all firemen should be passed by the council just like policemen or other employees, and not until all applications had been considered. He said that since both the fire and police departments were seeking civil service, the greatest care must be taken in the selection of any new employees.

Mayor Witmer said that since the chief himself would not recommend the men and the council had never employed them, he would refuse to sign paychecks. LeGaye said that the department could get along without new men and that he also would not sign warrants. Hasenjaeger said he was in no position to know the needs of the fire department and if the men were needed, he would approve new appointments by the prescribed methods.

Personnel Officer
At the next council meeting a resolution will be passed, it is planned, making City Auditor Banks a personnel officer and each new appointment will be considered and recommended by Banks and a commission of the council. This group will also take care of dismissals and thus have the sole power to "fire and hire."

It was finally agreed that one man would be hired as fireman and that Fink and Cory could apply for the job on an equal footing with anyone else, and the ultimate employee would be picked solely on his qualifications and experience, after taking tests. Fink and Cory will be paid for their work in June to date and an adjustment will be made for their expenditure for uniforms and equipment, it was decided.

The council made it clear that there was no attempt to discredit Fink and Cory as prospective city employees, and only that the method of hiring the men was under fire.

LOGAN JACKSON TO BE HOST TO PEACE OFFICERS

Sheriff Logan Jackson and the county sheriff's office will be host to peace officers and citizens of the county tomorrow night at the regular meeting of the Orange County Peace Officers' association to be held in the American Legion hall at 6:30 p. m.

The speaker of the evening will be John Finlinson, assistant chief of the Los Angeles police department, who will speak on "Crime Problems of the Day." Finlinson is widely known for his efficient police record and was the originator of the Los Angeles police school, which at one time was the largest police training school in the world.

Because of the general interest in the topic and the reputation of the speaker, Sheriff Jackson has invited the general public to attend at the banquet and hear Finlinson. His talk is expected to start shortly after 7:30 o'clock. Jackson will be in charge of the meeting during the program.

In addition to the speaker, Jackson has secured a varied program of entertainment. Several numbers will be offered by a brass quartet consisting of Harold Lutes, Robert Kelly, Owen Owens and Thomas Flippin, all from the Santa Ana junior college. Raymond McCall will play violin numbers and Miss Esther Vogt will play piano selections.

California Highway Patrolman George Stinson, widely known as the "singing cop," will contribute to the musical program.

The business portion of the evening will be in charge of President LaVerne Keller of Huntington Beach. The dinner will be served by the American Legion auxiliary.

HIGDAY NAMED TO REGISTER TRUCKS UNDER NEW CODE

All for-hire truck operators in California will be required to register their vehicles with the state code authority for the trucking industry by June 14th, in compliance with the code and in accordance with word just received from the National Recovery administration in Washington.

The code for this industry, one of the 12 major industries under the NRA, provides that all operators for-hire must register their vehicles at once, pay the statutory assessments, supply information concerning their operations and display insignia on all vehicles. Failure to do so is a violation of the code, punishable by heavy penalties.

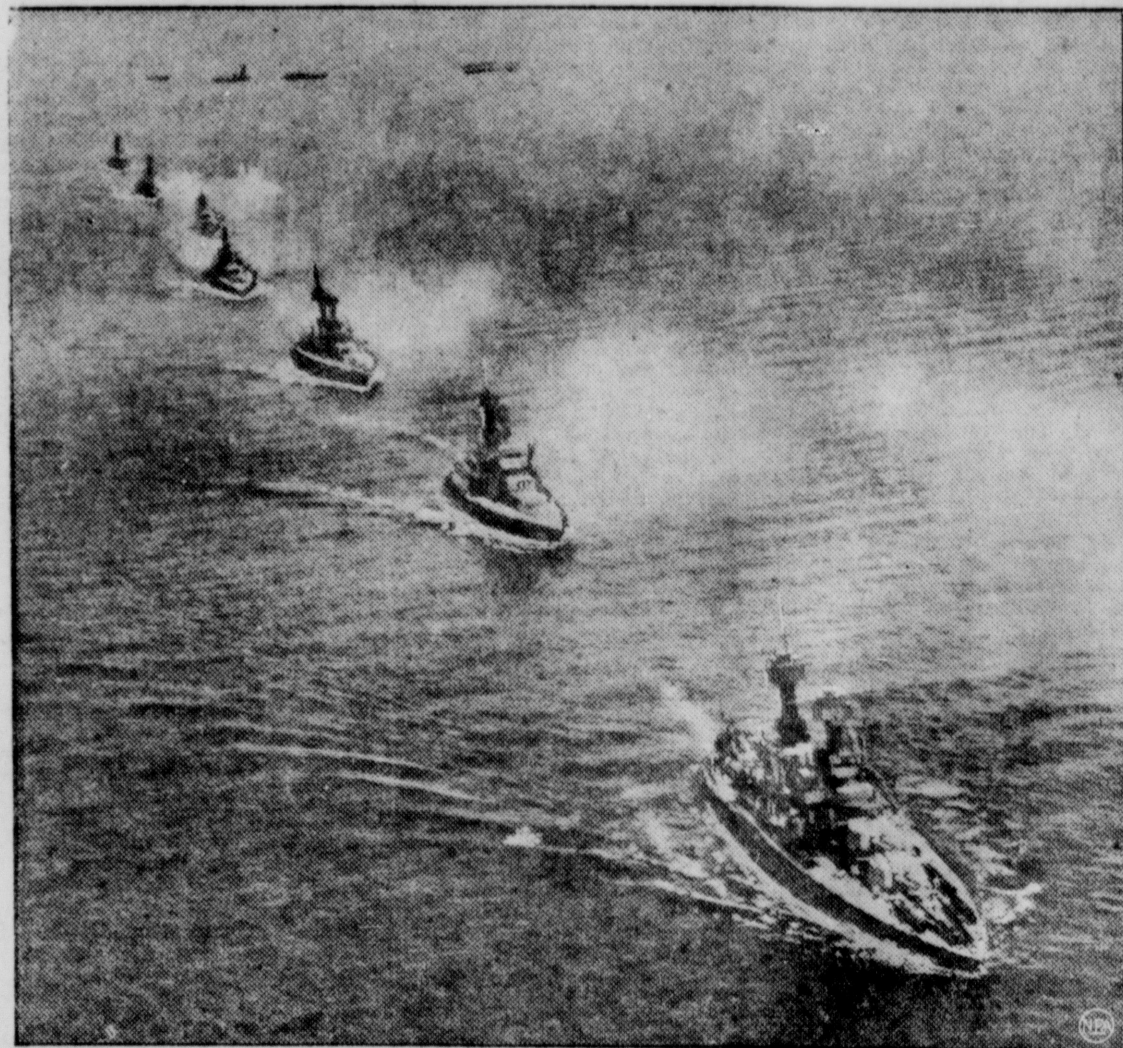

The state code authority for California has set up the machinery for registering approximately 40,000 vehicles. Fifty-two authorized registration agents have been established throughout the state for the convenience of members of the industry, according to Z. E. Jones, state secretary in the Balfour building, San Francisco.

Edgar M. Higday, with Van Dien-Young company, 508 East Fourth street, Santa Ana, has been appointed registration agent for Orange county, and registration forms, instructions and data on filing of minima for rates and tariffs under the code may be obtained from him.

THREE BIG GUNS IN REVIEW OF UNCLE SAM'S FLEET

As jolly as the jolliest tars in Uncle Sam's navy were President Roosevelt and the two other "big guns" of the great review of the fleet in New York harbor when this striking photo was taken aboard the Indianapolis during maneuvers. Pictured with the president, center, who himself was assistant secretary of the navy, are Claude Swanson, left, present secretary of the navy, and Josephus Daniels, right, former secretary of the navy and now ambassador to Mexico.

Plunging and surging in a majestic gray line through New York harbor's smooth waters, fighting ships of the navy's great armada presented this picturesque sight as they boomed out their salutes on passing the Indianapolis, where their commander-in-chief, President Roosevelt, was reviewing one of the most formidable marine pageants the nation has ever seen.

INSURANCE BUSINESS PAYS NEARLY $300,000 ANNUALLY IN COMMISSIONS IN SANTA ANA

Revealing that Santa Ana insurance firm owners, employees and solicitors receive annual commissions totalling $295,410.16 and write policies costing nearly a million dollars in premiums per year, a report has been compiled by the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce on local insurance business.

The report shows that there are 136 firms have 142 automobiles used in Santa Ana and employees have an additional 71 vehicles that are used in the city.

George Raymer, chamber secretary, in commenting on the survey said that the individuals in the insurance firms paid $21,744.11 in personal and real taxes on city and county assessments. The approximate total of premiums written annually, for all classes of insurance and bond premiums is $949,292.61, according to the report. The firms have an original investment in office furniture and fixtures of $53,497 and expend $46,051.45 for office supplies, stationery, automobile expense and other items. Annual office rent is $18,675. In addition to the nearly $300,000 aid out in commissions on Santa Ana insurance business, there is $154,438 paid annually in salaries and other commissions.

Raymer said that a similar survey is now being conducted of Santa Ana industrial firms to determine the amount of business and investment in this line of activity.

The meeting will institute the change from monthly district meetings, to quarterly ones. Santa Ana clubwomen will extend invitation at the business session, to hold the April meeting with its annual election of officers, in this city.

Mrs. Adelaide Cochran, June program chairman, spoke briefly on the month's theme of recreation, and announced that Mrs. Hyde had secured a speaker and several reels of travel film for entertainment. Mrs. Hyde explained that her speaker, Mrs. Lucy Robinson, had been called back to Seattle, and that in the emergency Gordon Decker of Los Angeles had sent to San Francisco for reels of Mexican travel pictures, and would talk on tours through that country.

The speaker cited among other points, that Mexico afforded such wide variety as pyramids antedating those of Egypt, waterways rivaling Venice, and ruins of antiquity and grandeur comparable with those of Rome.

Personnel Officer
At the next council meeting a resolution will be passed, it is planned, making City Auditor Banks a personnel officer and each new appointment will be considered and recommended by Banks and a commission of the council. This group will also take care of dismissals and thus have the sole power to "fire and hire."

It was finally agreed that one man would be hired as fireman and that Fink and Cory could apply for the job on an equal footing with anyone else, and the ultimate employee would be picked solely on his qualifications and experience, after taking tests. Fink and Cory will be paid for their work in June to date and an adjustment will be made for their expenditure for uniforms and equipment, it was decided.

The council made it clear that there was no attempt to discredit Fink and Cory as prospective city employees, and only that the method of hiring the men was under fire.

Sheriff Logan Jackson and the county sheriff's office will be host to peace officers and citizens of the county tomorrow night at the regular meeting of the Orange County Peace Officers association to be held in the American Legion hall at 8:30 p.m.

The speaker of the evening will be John Finlinson, assistant chief of the Los Angeles police department, who will speak on "Crime Problems of the Day." Finlinson is widely known for his efficient police record and was the originator of the Los Angeles police school, which at one time was the largest police training school in the world.

Because of the general interest in the topic and the reputation of the speaker, Sheriff Jackson has invited the general public to attend after the banquet and hear Finlinson. His talk is expected to start shortly after 7:30 o'clock. Jackson will be in charge of the meeting during the program.

In addition to the speaker, Jackson has secured a varied program of entertainment. Several numbers will be offered by a brass quartet consisting of Harold Lutes, Robert Kelly, Owen Owens and Thomas Flippen, all from the Santa Ana junior college. Raymond McCall will play violin numbers and Miss Esther Vogt will play piano selections.

California Highway Patrolman George Stinson, widely known as the "singing cop," will contribute to the musical program.

The business portion of the evening will be in charge of President LaVerne Keller of Huntington Beach. The dinner will be served by the American Legion auxiliary.

HIGDAY NAMED TO REGISTER TRUCKS UNDER NEW CODE

All for-hire truck operators in California will be required to register their vehicles with the state code authority for the trucking industry by June 14th, in compliance with the code and in accordance with word just received from the National Recovery administration in Washington.

The code for this industry, one of the 12 major industries under the NRA, provides that all operators for-hire must register their vehicles at once, pay the statutory assessments, supply information concerning their operations and display insignia on all vehicles. Failure to do so is a violation of the code, punishable by heavy penalties.

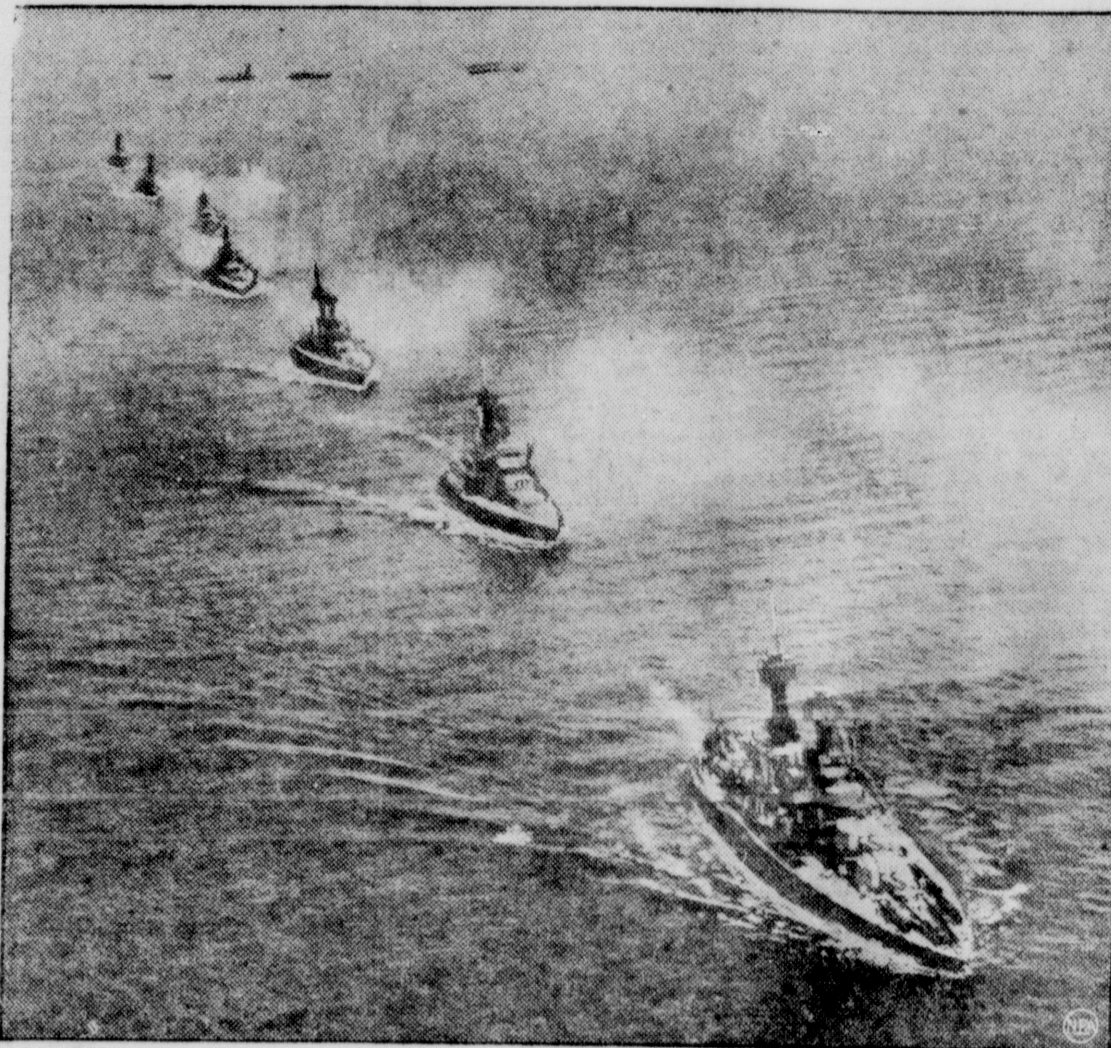

The state code authority for California has set up the machinery for registering approximately 40,000 vehicles. Fifty-two authorized registration agents have been established throughout the state for the convenience of members of the industry, according to E. E. Jones, state secretary in the Balfour building, San Francisco.

Edgar M. Higday, with Van Dien-Young company, 508 East Fourth street, Santa Ana, has been appointed registration agent for Orange county, and registration forms, instructions and data on filing of minima for rates and tariffs under the code may be obtained from him.

THREE BIG GUNS IN REVIEW OF UNCLE SAM'S FLEET

As jolly as the jolliest tars in Uncle Sam's navy were President Roosevelt and the two other "big guns" of the great review of the fleet in New York harbor when this striking photo was taken aboard the Indianapolis during maneuvers. Pictured with the president, center, who himself was assistant secretary of the navy, are Claude Swanson, left, present secretary of the navy, and Josephus Daniels, right, former secretary of the navy and now ambassador to Mexico.

Plunging and surging in a majestic gray line through New York harbor's smooth waters, fighting ships of the navy's great armada presented this picturesque sight as they boomed out their salutes on passing the Indianapolis, where their commander-in-chief, President Roosevelt, was reviewing one of the most formidable marine pageants the nation has ever seen.

INSURANCE BUSINESS PAYS NEARLY $300,000 ANNUALLY IN COMMISSIONS IN SANTA ANA

Revealing that Santa Ana insurance firm owners, employees and solicitors receive annual commissions totalling $295,410.16 and write policies costing nearly a million dollars in premiums per year, a report has been compiled by the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce on local insurance business.

The report shows that there are 196 persons connected with the insurance offices and 401 persons wholly or partially dependent for support on insurance offices. The firms have 142 automobiles used in Santa Ana and employees have an additional 71 vehicles that are used in the city.

George Raymer, chamber secretary, in commenting on the survey said that the individuals in the insurance firms paid $21,744.11 in personal and real taxes on city and county assessments. The approximate total of premiums written annually, for all classes of insurance and bond premiums is $949,292.61, according to the report. The firms have an original investment in office furniture and fixtures of $53,497 and expend $46,051.45 for office supplies, stationery, automobile expense and other items. Annual office rent is $13,675. In addition to the nearly $300,000 aid out in commissions on Santa Ana insurance business, there is $154,438 paid annually in salaries and other commissions.

Raymer said that a similar survey is now being conducted of Santa Ana industrial firms to determine the amount of business and investment in this line of activity.

HOUSEHOLDSorority Introduces Rushing Season
With Tea

Launching their spring rushing season, members of Phi Theta Chi sorority welcomed a group of guests Sunday afternoon at a formal tea at which Miss Lucille Crawford was hostess in her home, 555 Grand avenue.

Decorations of dahlias and gladioli in varying tones of yellow, pink and green, not only lent a gala air to the home, but emphasized the sorority colors of yellow and green. The effect was especially charming at the tea table where Miss Carol Smith, sorority president, presided.

Here, cactus and pompon varieties of dahlias nodded at their reflections in a mirror plateau, while at the four corners of the table, candles in yellow mirrors, green, reflected smaller mirrors, with very lovely effect. Dahlias of the tea menu, served to further the green and yellow theme.

For special entertainment during the tea hour, Miss Alice Martin, soprano, sang such numbers as "Where My Caravan Has Rested" and "Beauvau." Miss Dorothy Proctor was her accompanist, and also was piano soloist, playing a succession of appropriate numbers very brilliantly.

During the afternoon girls of the hostess group posed for various pictures in the pretty garden, sometimes as an entire group and again in smaller groups or singly. Guests invited to share the hospitality included the Misses Peggy Warburton, Janet Welby, Charlotte Fulton, Dorothy Prescott, Donna Crawford, Helen Manderschied, Frances Roberts and Mrs. C. E. Frasse (Geraldine Smith). In the sorority group were the Misses Lucille Crawford, Carol Smith, Peggy Tadlock, Betty Niedergall, Winifred Schneider, Thelma Shippe, Lorene Shippe, Mary Alice White, Charlene Kite and Dorothy Johnson.

Hostess at Luncheon
Honors Southland
Visitor

Coming as an especially pleasant feature of the Southland visit of Miss Katherine R. A. Flood of Newton, Mass., was the luncheon given Saturday afternoon when Mrs. E. J. Parker was hostess in her home on Yorba street.

Since Miss Flood is a past national president of Daughters of Union Veterans, appointments for the luncheon were in yellow, the organization's color. A mound of sweet peas and maidenhair fern centered the table where nut cups and other decorations furthered a pretty theme. Tiny American flags were favors. Yellow gladioli brightened the living room.

Miss Parker's guests included Miss Flood, Mrs. A. M. Gardner, Mrs. E. A. Bell, Mrs. Perry Grout, Mrs. J. R. Moore, Mrs. A. D. Bishop, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Bell are past department presidents of Daughters of Union Veterans, and Mrs. Moore recently was elected a member of the department council.

By Sister-in-law

Mrs. Herbert Smith complimented her sister-in-law, Miss Maxine Smith, fiancée of Clifford Miller of this city, in entertaining Saturday afternoon in her home, 414 Eastside avenue. The affair came as a surprise to the bride-elect, whose marriage is to take place in July. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe L. Smith, 606 South Parton street.

Mrs. Dale Park, cousin of the hostess, assisted in various duties of the afternoon. Bridge was played in a pretty floral setting provided by many yellow flowers. Table prizes were awarded Mrs. Lee Allen, Mrs. Paul King and Miss Helen Love.

Decorations for the refreshment hour were typically bridal. Miss Smith's table, centered with a small bell in bridal attire, was appointed in white and silver. Other tables, centered with tiny bride-maid figurines, were lovely in pastel details.

At the close of the afternoon Miss Smith was showered with gifts of miscellaneous nature.

SO SLENDERIZING

PATTERN 1844

BY ANNE ADAMS

It is obviously a very attractive frock—anybody can see that—but what does it appear at a glance is the amazing effect it has on your figure. It does the most delightful things to the lines, straightening out a curve here and covering up one there until a woman has become as slender as her daughter. The cape-collar was a veritable inspiration. So smart it might just have stepped out of one of the great French dressmaking houses and so very, very flattering. It makes such a stunning model in print we hate to suggest another fabric—but it can be done—very well!

Pattern 1844 is available in sizes 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34 and 36. Size 24 takes 3 1/2 yards 89 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Birthday Dinner Party
Compliments Father
And Daughter

In accordance with a custom which the E. G. Bruns family has observed for a number of years, the birthday anniversaries of a father and daughter, E. G. Bruns and Mrs. Richard Cribaro, were celebrated jointly yesterday at a delightful dinner party held in the family home, 1209 Spurgeon street.

Assembling for the 1:30 o'clock dinner hour, members of this happy family circle speedily found places at a long table for the enjoyment of a birthday feast to which two huge turkey legs contributed their luscious delights together with an array of other appetizing dishes. With the dessert course was served an immense birthday cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Plummer Bruns, who has added this touch to each birthday celebration for a number of years.

Centering the table were pantries in deep rich shades the artistic arrangement of Mrs. Cribaro, who had used several hundred of the blossoms in achieving the effect.

There were congratulations and general reminiscences and an interval of gift making when both Mr. Bruns and Mrs. Cribaro were generously remembered.

In the party were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bruns, the hosts and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cribaro and their daughter Nellie, Mr. and Mrs. Plummer Bruns and daughter Virginia Belle, all of this city; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bruns and Mr. and Mrs. Lehnle Bruns and daughter Helen, of Anaheim.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and orangeade were served.

Apart from the value of hard breads in reducing diets, I have a purpose in putting these breads into the luncheon menu, and that purpose is to gently induce you to masticate properly, and so bring health to flabby gum tissues and gentle exercise to the facial muscles.

Today's Recipe
Sandwiches

Rolls of chicken or veal
2 cups of either meat run through the food grinder with 1 celery heart
1 Tbsp. minced pimiento
Mayonnaise to moisten
1 fresh loaf of bread
Soft butter.

Run the selected cooked meat through the food chopper together with the celery. Season to taste, add mayonnaise to make very moist, then the minced pimiento.

Now for the bread—You must have a very fresh bread if you wish dainty rolled sandwiches. Cut all the loaf into paper thin slices, and this you do by using the knife with a sawing motion, never pressing the knife down into the soft bread. Trim away the crusts after cutting, and spread with soft butter, then a layer of filling. Roll up and place rolled edge down in a paper lined pan. Cover with a damp cloth and put in refrigerator until served.

Brazilian Sandwiches
1 package cream cheese
2 Tbsp. cream
3 Brazil nuts, sliced thin
3 Tbsp. of any rich fruit jam
Mayonnaise to mix

Cream cheese with cream, add mayonnaise, then the jam and nuts. Spread on thin slices of dark bread (right at serving time), put in a filler of crisp lettuce, then the top slice spread with mayonnaise.

Sandwich A has an approximate value of 225 calories. Sandwich B has 375 calories.

Garden Party Brings
Chapter Sessions
To a Close

Grounds of the Jay C. Hamill home, 1901 North Main street, were setting Saturday afternoon for the meeting with which members of Santa Ana chapter Daughters of the American Revolution brought to a close their activities for the season.

Luncheon served at small tables shaded by large umbrellas preceded an especially interesting program. Hostesses with Mrs. Hamill were Mrs. C. J. Skirvin, Mrs. E. L. Morris, Miss Marjorie, Mrs. J. L. Mitchell and Mrs. W. C. Wilson. Mrs. E. D. Holmes, new chaplain, conducted memorial services for Mrs. C. C. Chapman, who had served the chapter as chaplain. Officers and committees gave annual reports.

Mrs. Arthur May, accompanied by Miss Maurie Hamill, sang "Thank God for a Garden," and Miss Alice McKee gave a reading. Many members took part in a program on "Ancestral Anecdotes," contributing old letters or stories to this entertaining interval.

Chapter activities for the new year will be carried on under direction of Mrs. Henry W. Guthrie, regent. Those who will serve with her include Mrs. J. H. Nicholson, vice regent; Mrs. J. C. Hamill, recording secretary; Mrs. E. G. Warner, corresponding secretary; Miss Mabel Larriek, treasurer; Miss Martha Whitson, registrar; Mrs. O. S. Catland, historian; Mrs. E. D. Holmes, chaplain.

Sorority Introduces Rushing Season With Tea

Launching their spring rushing season, members of Phi Theta Chi sorority welcomed a group of guests Sunday afternoon at a formal tea at which Miss Lucille Crawford was hostess in her home, 438 Grand avenue.

Decorations of dahlias and gladioli in varying tones of yellow combined with much greenery, not only lent a gala air to the home, but emphasized the sorority colors of yellow and green. The effect was especially charming at the tea table where Miss Carol Smith, sorority president, presided.

Here, cactus and pompon varieties of dahlias nodded at their reflections in a mirror plate, while at the four corners of the table, candles in yellow and pale green, reflected smaller mirrors, with very lovely effect. Dainties of the tea menu, served to further the green and yellow theme.

For special entertainment during the tea hour, Miss Alice Martin, soprano, sang such numbers as "Where My Caravan Has Rested" and "Because." Miss Dorothy Proctor was her accompanist, and also was piano soloist, playing a succession of appropriate numbers very brilliantly.

During the afternoon girls of the hostess group posed for various pictures in the pretty garden, sometimes as an entire group and again in smaller groups or singly.

Guests invited to share the hospitality included the Misses Peggy Warburton, Janet Welby, Charlotte Fulton, Dorothy Prescott, Donna Crawford, Helen Munster, schied, Frances Roberts and Mrs. C. E. Frazee (Geraldine Smith). In the sorority group were the Misses Lucille Crawford, Carol Smith, Peggy Tadlock, Betty Niedergall, Winifred Schneider, Thelma Shippe, Lorene Shippe, Mary Alice White, Charlene Kite and Dorothy Johnson.

Hostess at Luncheon Honors Southland Visitor

Coming as an especially pleasant feature of the Southland visit of Miss Katherine R. A. Flood of Newton, Mass., was the luncheon given Saturday afternoon when Mrs. E. J. Parker was hostess in her home on Yorba street.

Since Miss Flood is a past national president of Daughters of Union Veterans, appointments for the luncheon were in yellow, the organization's color. A mound of sweet peas and maidenhair fern centered the table where nut cups and other decorations furthered a pretty theme. Tiny American flags were favors. Yellow gladioli brightened the living room.

Mrs. Parker's guests included Miss Flood, Mrs. A. M. Gardner, Mrs. E. A. Bell, Mrs. Perry Grou, Mrs. J. R. Moore, Mrs. A. D. Bishop, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Bell are past department presidents of Daughters of Union Veterans, and Mrs. Moore recently was elected a member of the department council.

Surprise Shower for Engaged Girl Given By Sister-in-law

Mrs. Herbert Smith complimented her sister-in-law, Miss Maxine Smith, fiancée of Clifford Miller of this city, in entertaining Saturday afternoon in her home, 414 Eastside avenue. The affair came as a surprise to the bride-elect whose marriage is to take place in July. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe L. Smith, 606 South Parton street.

Mrs. Dale Park, cousin of the hostess, assisted in various duties of the afternoon. Bridge was played in a pretty floral setting provided by many yellow flowers. Table prizes were awarded Mrs. Lee Allen, Mrs. Paul King and Miss Helen Love.

Decorations for the refreshment hour were typically bridal. Miss Smith's table, centered with a small doll in bridal attire, was appointed in white and silver. Other tables, centered with tiny bridesmaid figures, were lovely in pastel details. At the close of the afternoon Miss Smith was showered with gifts of miscellaneous nature.

Sharing the evening with Mrs. Smith were Miss Maxine Smith, and her mother, Mrs. Roscoe L. Smith and Mesdames Paul King, Dale Park, Earl Young, Mae Barker, Lee Allen, Bertha Williams, Vera Miller, the Misses Clarice Miller, Gladys Williams, Helen Love, Alice Wales.

OBVIOUSLY CHIC—AND SO SLENDERIZING

PATTERN 1844 BY ANNE ADAMS

It is obviously a very attractive frock—anybody can see that—but what does not appear at a glance is the amazing effect it has on your figure. It does the most delightful things to the lines, straightening out a curve here and covering up one there until a woman has become as slender as her daughter. The cape-collar was a veritable inspiration. So smart it might just have stepped out of one of the great French dressmaking houses and so very, very flattering. It makes such a stunning model in print, we hate to suggest another fabric—but it can be done—very well!

Pattern 1844 is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTY CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

ORANGE, June 5.—Seven hundred and twenty-four cars of citrus fruits were shipped during May from houses affiliated with the Orange County Fruit exchange, including 607 cars of Valencia oranges and 117 cars of lemons, it was disclosed in the monthly report of the exchange today.

The Valencia shipments greatly exceed shipments for the same period last year, the report showed, 607 this year as against 132 for the like period of 1933. Of the recent month's shipments, 576 cars were moved to export and domestic markets and 31 cars were sold through the Los Angeles distributing plant.

The May lemon shipments of 117 cars brought the total shipments of lemons to date up to 284 cars.

"Prices for the opening month of our Valencia season have been quite satisfactory," said Manager Clarence E. Skiles of the exchange. "This, we believe, demonstrates the wisdom of full control of shipments of California citrus fruits and the further need of continued cooperation and support of an intelligent and sound program of distribution of fruit by all shippers in the industry, in order that a reasonable return may be paid the producer for his crop above production costs."

"Shipments of sizes from this territory considerably better than from the balance of the Valencia territory has resulted from general picking of young groves, the usual practice of breaking up clusters and in some cases picking for sizes. The conditions undoubtedly will be reflected in the shipment later on in the heavier percentages of the smaller and less desirable sizes."

The estimate of Valencia remaining to go, as of June 1, is 6577 cars from exchange houses in this territory, as compared with 5239 cars actually shipped last year.

DONNA of the BIG TOP

by BEULAH POYNTER

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Donna Gabriel and Madeline Sidal who call themselves "The Gabriel Sisters" are circus performers. When Donna is injured by a fall from the trapeze, Madeline arranges for her to be taken to Grandfather Sidal's farm to recuperate. To please her partner Donna pretends to be Madeline. She is ashamed of this deception but keeps it up, even when Bill Sidal, Madeline's cousin, asks her to marry him. Meanwhile Madeline marries Con David, animal trainer with the circus, and takes part in the animal act.

Donna and Bill are married. Mrs. Planter, housekeeper discharged by Donna, is her enemy. Grandfather Sidal has a stroke and Donna writes Madeline about his illness.

The circus is in New Orleans. Con tells Madeline she must go into the cage alone with Lucy the tiger, during the evening performance. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XXV

Contrary to expectations, Renfro was not at all enthusiastic about Madeline going into the cage alone with Lucy.

"I don't trust that beast," the circus owner said. "I never have, and I never will. Oh, I know Madeline has been working with the cat for several weeks but, just the same, she's afraid of her. If she should suddenly lose her nerves—"

"But she won't," Con protested. "Why, you've seen for yourself how she handles her as well as I can."

Renfro shook his head. "I'm not afraid that anything will happen when you're in the cage, Con. With Madeline it's different. An accident now would ruin our business here and, God knows, we need the business."

Con laughed. "Then what are you complaining about? This act will get business for you. It's going to be a sensation! Give the crowd some real thrills and watch them 'hook in'!"

announced that Mlle. Gabriel would put the tigress through her paces, the glowing light swung about and fell directly on Madeline, lighting her beauty and emphasizing the delicacy of her figure.

Drawn by snow-white horses, another cage was brought into the arena. Lucy, looking magnificent and at the same time repellent, glared through the bars as the cage made a circuit of the tent. Then the other animals were driven back through their run-way and Lucy, snarling, spitting and defiant, was prodded with prongs until she entered the massive cage.

Perhaps at that moment Con had a premonition of what was to happen. Perhaps he felt a twinge of conscience or a spark of tenderness towards the girl who stood beside him. He leaned toward her and whispered, "If you're afraid, Honey, we'll call the whole thing off."

Madeline raised her shadowed eyes to his, a bitter smile twisting her lovely, rouged lips. "I'll go out in a blaze of glory," she said. She was thinking that this was to be her farewell appearance with the circus. As soon as the act was over she would tell Con that she was "jumping" the show, that she was through with him and with Renfro's circus forever.

The door of the cage was opened then and, armed only with a whip, Madeline slid through the aperture. Spectators held their breath. The big tent that had been hushed before seemed utterly still and silent.

There were men on guard outside armed with revolvers but few of the watchers knew that Lucy stood in the center of the cage, her yellow eyes meeting Madeline's, as the graceful feline body crouched low.

Step by step, the girl advanced, speaking softly. "On the chair, Lucy. On the chair."

Suddenly a man in a seat just behind the first row arose to his feet. He gave a low, mirthless laugh and called out in a voice that penetrated the entire tent, "Go to it, Baby! I said I'd be here and here I am!"

Even the men on guard to prevent accidents were too stunned to move. Con cried out, "Good God!" and tore at the fastenings of the door. Perhaps because he jerked so violently, the lock caught and jammed. Then a shot rang out. The tigress sprang into the air, gave a dying groan and fell back across the mutilated, bleeding body of the girl.

It was then that the audience came to life. There were screams and groans and women fainted. Even men, shuddering and sickened, hid their faces behind trembling hands.

Con tore open the door of the cage and reached his wife. As he lifted her small figure in his gay finery of yellow and purple his voice could be heard above the tumult crying, "Who the devil shot the tiger?"

Madeline was still breathing as Con carried her across the arena to the nearest dressing room, which was La Belle Matilde's, but it was obvious that life was ebbing fast. A doctor who had been in the audience and witnessed the tragedy offered his services. It took only the briefest examination before he told them the girl had only a few moments to live.

Meanwhile Trafford, the man who had caused the accident, slipped out of the tent unnoticed, sobered by what he had done and discovered that revenge was not sweet. He lingered near the entrance to the grounds, waiting to hear whether Madeline lived or died.

For the first time in his career Renfro forgot that "the show must go on." The accident in which Donna had been injured had not been torn and mangled and been bad enough, but Donna had certain to die. A merciful God could not let Madeline linger long.

When the spectators, in a body, rose and left the big top Renfro made no effort to stop them. There was no announcement that the girl was not badly injured and that the performance would continue. The circus owner was too shocked to think or to care what happened next.

Renfro was a simple soul—a kindly, generous man at heart. Though ambitious and somewhat mercenary, he had always placed human life before financial gain. He had heard Con demanding to know who had killed the tiger, and dull, cold contempt filled him. To think that a man, carrying his wife who was unquestionably dying in his arms, could even think of the brute that had destroyed her!

As Con stepped back from the couch where he had placed Madeline the circus owner said hoarsely, "You've killed her, Con. I didn't want her to go into that cage, and you know it. You sent her to her death!"

"Nobody's blaming you," Con hiccoughed.

"And you're through," Renfro added. "Whether she lives or dies, you're through."

Con's lips were distorted in a grimace that was intended to be a smile. "Thanks," he said. "So you'd kick a man when he's down. But with my best animal dead and my wife—"

"Your best animal!" snapped Renfro. "If wisdom!" shot the jammed beast myself! To think that you can mention that cat in the same breath with your dying wife!"

"Please gentlemen—" the doctor protested. Both men stopped talking. There was a moment's silence and then the faintest murmuring came from the couch. "Con," Madeline said softly. "Con—"

He knelt beside her and her fumbling fingers stroked his cheek. "Kiss me, Con," the girl whispered. "I loved you so much. If you don't forgive me—"

He kissed the pain-drawn mouth, pressing his own against it in an agony of contrition. Only when her lips grew cold and her tortured breathing ceased did he draw back. Then, like one suddenly stricken blind, Con David stumbled out of the little room, out of the run-way and into the open air.

Lurching drunkenly, he made his way through the alley where the concession stands were grouped, past the sideshow of freaks, the peanut and lemonade vendors to the exit from the grounds.

It was the irony of fate that he should be the one to inform Ned Trafford of Madeline's death. But Con did not know who the man was who accosted him. The animal trainer's filmed, blood-shot eyes saw only the bulk of a man in the shadows. He did not recognize Trafford's voice.

"How is she?" the man in the shadows asked. "Dead!" Con answered. He staggered on toward the city, still wearing his costume of yellow and purple. Yellow had been the color that Madeline had feared. She had said that it brought bad luck!

Measure it

REFRIGERATION COST 2 CENTS A DAY

You'll find that it's only 2 cents a day with ELECTROLUX the Gas refrigerator

"You can't measure the cost of a thing with a tape-measure" remarked a rather well known engineer when he saw the illustration for this advertisement.

"You're right" replied the advertising manager. "Neither can you 'weigh' a word on a set of scales although it is said that some words are 'weighty' nor can you gauge the temperature of any 'heated argument' by a thermometer."

The illustration above is just a bit of "poetic license" intended to visualize the remarkably low cost of AUTOMATIC refrigeration with ELECTROLUX, the modern natural gas refrigerator.

Think of it—the price of a loaf of bread will keep your family food supply SAFELY COLD for six or seven days!

That's all we are trying to say in this advertisement. Thousands of happy owners of ELECTROLUX in Southern California know it's true.

Hot weather is here. More of it is on the way. When you can buy an ELECTROLUX on easy terms, why wait?

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Donna Gabriel and Madeline Sidal who call themselves "The Gypsy Sisters" are circus performers. When Donna is injured by a fall from the trapeze Madeline arranges for her to be taken to Grandfather Sidal's farm to recuperate. To please her partner Donna pretends to be Madeline. She is successful in this deception but keeps it up, even when Bill Sidal, Madeline's cousin, asks her to marry him.

Meanwhile Madeline marries Con David, animal trainer with the circus, and takes part in the animal act.

Donna and Bill are married. Mrs. Planter, housekeeper discharged by Donna, is her enemy.

CHAPTER XXV

Contrary to expectations, Renfro was not at all enthusiastic about Madeline going into the cage alone with Lucy.

"I don't trust that beast," the circus owner said. "I never have, and I never will. Oh, I know Madeline has been working with her cat for several weeks, but, just the same, she's afraid of her. If she should suddenly lose her nerve—"

"But she won't," Con protested. "Why, you've seen for yourself how Lucy behaves now. Madeline can handle her as well as I can."

Renfro shook his head. "I'm not afraid that anything will happen when you're in the cage, Con. With Madeline it's different. An accident now would ruin our business here and, God knows, we need the business."

Con laughed. "Then what are you complaining about? This act will get business for you. It's going to be a sensation! Give the crowd some real thrills and watch them pack in!"

But Renfro was not convinced. He required several minutes of argument before the circus owner finally gave a grudging assent. Even then he refused to make the announcement that Madeline would enter the cage alone with the tigress.

There was an air of hushed suspense in the big tent an hour later when the striped beauties and their larger, less ferocious cousins, the lions, filed in through the wooden enclosure and took their places in the huge steel cage. Madeline stood near at hand and watched Con go through the act that had first won her admiration.

announced that Mlle. Gabriel would put the tigress through her paces, the glowing light swung about and fell directly on Madeline, lighting her beauty and emphasizing the delicacy of her figure.

Drawn by snow-white horses, another cage was brought into the arena. Lucy, looking magnificent and at the same time repellent, glared through the bars as the cage made a circuit of the tent. Then the other animals were driven back through their run-way and Lucy, snarling, spitting and defiant, was prodded with prongs until she entered the massive cage.

Perhaps at that moment Con had a premonition of what was to happen. Perhaps he felt a twinge of conscience or a spark of tenderness towards the girl who stood beside him. He leaned toward her and whispered, "If you're afraid, Honey, we'll call the whole thing off."

Madeline raised her shadowed eyes to his, a bitter smile twisting her lovely, rouged lips. "I'll go out in a blaze of glory," she said. She was thinking that this was to be her farewell appearance with the circus. As soon as the wet was over she would tell Con that she was "jumping" the show, that she was through with him and with Renfro's circus forever.

The door of the cage was opened then and, armed only with a whip, Madeline slid through the aperture. Spectators held their breath. The big tent that had been hushed before seemed utterly still and silent.

There were men on guard outside armed with revolvers but few of the watchers knew that. Lucy stood in the center of the cage, her yellow eyes meeting Madeline's, as the graceful feline body crouched low.

Step by step, the girl advanced, speaking softly. "On the chair, Lucy. On the chair."

Suddenly a man in a seat just behind the first row arose to his feet. He gave a low, mirthless laugh and called out in a voice that penetrated the entire tent, "Go to it, Baby! I said I'd be here and here I am!"

Unmindful of her danger, Madeline turned. She saw Trafford, standing in the second row, and caught the leering grin on his face. It was at that instant while her attention wavered—that the tigress leaped.

Unmindful of her danger, Madeline turned. She saw Trafford, standing in the second row, and caught the leering grin on his face. It was at that instant while her attention wavered—that the tigress leaped.

The rest happened so swiftly—a vivid splash of orange and white and black shooting through the air, the blood-curdling scream and great beast bearing the slender body to the ground—that the horrified spectators were gripped in complete inactivity by the shock.

Even the men on guard to prevent accidents were too stunned to move. Con cried out, "Good God!" and tore at the fastenings of the door. Perhaps because he jerked so violently, the lock caught and jammed. Then a shot rang out. The tigress sprang into the air, gave a dying groan and fell back across the mutilated, bleeding body of the girl.

It was then that the audience came to life. There were screams and groans and women fainted. Even men, shuddering and sickened, hid their faces behind trembling hands.

Con tore open the door of the cage and reached his wife. As he lifted her small figure in his gay finery of yellow and purple his voice could be heard above the tumult crying, "Who the devil shot the tiger?"

Madeline was still breathing as Con carried her across the arena to the nearest dressing room, which was La Belle Matilde's, but it was obvious that life was ebbing fast. A doctor who had been in the audience and witnessed the tragedy offered his services. It took only the briefest examination before he told them the girl had only a few moments to live.

Meanwhile Trafford, the man who had caused the accident, slipped out of the tent unnoticed, discovered by what he had done and sobered by what he had seen. He lingered near the entrance to the grounds, waiting to hear whether Madeline lived or died.

For the first time in his career Renfro forgot that "the show must go on." The accident in which Donna had been injured had not been torn and mangled and been bad enough, but Donna had certain to die. A merciful God could not let Madeline linger long. When the spectators in a body rose and left the big top Renfro made no effort to stop them. There was no announcement that the girl was not badly injured and that the performance would continue. The circus owner was too shocked to think or to care what happened next.

Renfro was a simple soul—a kindly, generous man at heart. Though ambitious and somewhat mercenary, he had always placed human life before financial gain. He had heard Con demanding to know who had killed the tiger, and dull, cold contempt filled him. To think that a man, carrying his wife who was unquestionably dying in his arms, could even think

Four Duncy was a frightened lad. He loudly shouted, "I'll be glad when I am off this teeter-totter."

"I thought that this would be real fun, but look what Margery has done. She nearly bounced me off, and I think she is far too rough."

"Oh, you're a little 'fraidy cat' to let yourself get scared like that," said Dotty. "See! I told you that you'd likely take a flop."

"The reason that you're safe and sound, instead of spruced upon the ground, is 'cause friend Margery is kind, and knew just when to stop."

"Yes, lad, I really could have tossed you 'way up high, till you were lost," said Margery, "but you looked scared. You'd best hop to the ground."

"I'll let the other Tintins try their luck at bouncing toward the sky. Then I must bid you all good-by, 'cause I'll be homebound."

In just a little while the bunch hiked down the road. "I have a hunch that we should visit yonder cottage," little Goldy cried.

"A thin man lives there with his mate. To visit them would be just great. Of course, though, if they are not friendly we can run and hide."

They rapped upon the door and then were very thrilled and tickled when a skinny man appeared and said, "I'm Jack Spratt! Come right in."

"I eat no fat; my wife no lean."

CHAMBER GETS $1500; VOTE ON PARK TAX DUE

NEWPORT BEACH, June 5.—An increase of $5000 in the city budget for 1934-1935 was voted by the city council last night when the board approved the new budget calling for an expenditure of $125,620 in the coming year. The city spent $120,000, $3000 over the budget, in the past year.

The increase was caused in part by a change in city policy in regard to employment in some departments, it having been decided to change the fire department from a five-day to a six-day week, with a consequent increase in salary. There was a marked increase in the appropriations for electrical department, city hall, pier maintenance and the appropriation for the city judge. In order to lessen the salary increase caused by the six-day week in some instances, it was decided to place the fire chief, police chief and heads of some departments on a monthly salary following a motion to that effect by Councilman Ellsworth.

An appropriation of $2600 was voted the parks committee for the following year. Councilman Clair voiced that opinion that a raise in park taxes to take up the slack there, from three cents to five cents, would probably be necessary, and it was decided to refer the matter to the voters at the next city election. It was decided to appoint a special advisory committee to the parks committee of the council to assist in planning for the coming year.

The sum of $1500 was voted the chamber of commerce for expenditure on the Tournament of Lights, scheduled for July 24. All other bills payable by the chamber of commerce for advertising and promotional expenditures will be handled through the advertising committee of the council, it was stated. A petition from the chamber asking for approximately $5000 for its advertising fund for the coming year was read, and with the exception of the tournament of lights appropriation, referred to the council finance and advertising committees for report.

The petition asked for $150 for surfboard contests, $100 for Christmas decorations, $350 for the Tournament of Roses, $1020 for the chamber of commerce fund and $175 for a fishing contest, in addition to the $1500 request, which was granted.

A motion to amend the existing ordinance prohibiting the loading of passengers in traffic zones was passed, to allow the Red Top Cab company operating in the city, to install cab loading stations in Newport and Balboa.

Buildings on Marine avenue in Balboa, which encroach on city property, and have long been the subject of controversy, will be moved this week by City Engineer R. L. Patterson, according to instructions given him by the city council.

Owners of the property, which consists of the Richardson and Dromgold garage, and adjoining buildings, received instructions to have the property moved by May 1, and have not done so as yet, it was declared. The city will saw the buildings off and assess the property owners for the work, under the city ordinance covering the abatement of nuisances.

Plan Fiesta At Beach For July Fourth

HUNTINGTON BEACH, June 5.—The Fourth of July celebration here is to be known as Fiesta De La Plata in observance of the 25th anniversary of the incorporation of the city. It will take the form of a Spanish fiesta with horses and riding events predominating. The people of the city have been invited to wear Spanish costumes. The Fourth of July program formed the chief topic of discussion at the chamber of commerce luncheon Monday at the Golden Bear cafe. Dr. Lawrence Whitaker, vice president, wore a Spanish costume. President Bristol presided and the discussion of the fiesta plans, with W. H. Gallienne, chairman of the general committee, and Clint Brush, chairman of the horse committee, outlining features of the celebration.

Mrs. Stella White, newspaper writer, was the speaker for the day, which was designated as "Stella White Day" by Mrs. May S. Jackson, club secretary. Mrs. White was presented with a corsage bouquet with the compliments experiences as a news writer.

MISSION CITY STUDENTS HOLD ANNUAL DINNER

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, June 5.—The Aquarium cafe in San Clemente was the setting for the annual junior-senior class banquet of San Juan Capistrano Union High school.

The ship motif in purple and gold, the senior class colors, was carried out in all appointments for the dinner. There were gilded anchors holding purple candles which gave the desired lighting effect. Small purple sail boats were nutcrackers with white sails which were placed as place cards. The programs were of the same colors tied with gold colored cord.

The program which followed the dinner was started by an address of welcome given by Jim Barry, an officer of the junior class. Bill Magee, president of the senior class responded with a short speech.

Other speeches were given by Coach Stan Gould, faculty advisor for the senior class, and John S. Malcom, Bob Amundson, junior class president, was toastmaster.

There were 45 guests at the affair. Faculty members and wives present included the Misses Margaret Nelson and Rachel Hutchinson, Coach Stanley Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stanbery, Mrs. Esther Allen Hubbard and Principal and Mrs. John S. 50 STUDENTS GRADUATE FROM BEACH SCHOOL

Graduates of the Laguna Beach Grammar school, pictured below, received their diplomas at a program held before a large group of friends and relatives last night.

'JERICHO' AND OIL FIRM ASKS 'HOOEY' FIRST. CITY TO DROP SECOND IN RACE WELL INTEREST

NEWPORT BEACH, June 5.—Cloudless skies and perfect sailing weather helped swell the entry list in the T. J. Gentle sailing races Sunday to nine as Herb Grube in the sloop "Jericho" crossed the finish line 27 minutes ahead of the Al Snyder sloop "Hooey" to win for the second time. Corrected time estimates gave the Jericho first, with the "Alvi" of L. R. Blaine second, in 2 hours and 5 minutes.

The semi-weekly events are proving a popular feature of the bay. Events, three racing in the first encounter, five the second time and in Sunday races, nine. A stiff southeasterly breeze helped the racing craft around the first marker in the course, but dropped off shortly after, to cause the heavier craft some trouble. The schooner "Ocean Wolf" proved its seaworthiness when, missing the midway marker, it was compelled to tack about and raced four additional miles, still coming in fifth.

The prize for these races consisted of a hand-sewn ditty bag, containing seaman's tools. The first week's prize was a compass, and the second a pint size fire extinguisher. It is planned by Gentle to continue the events, with some increase in the sailing course, as the entry list continues to grow.

Represented in the race were the Grube sloop "Jericho", Al Johnson's "Ocean Wolf", the "Hooey" of Al Snyder, Long's "Hawatha", Walt Ficklen's cutter "Hawatha", the L. R. Blaine "Alvi", the J. Williams sloop "Nomad", the cutter "West Wind", of I. Hope and the "Gay Lady" of Dixie Gentle.

O. E. S. Officers Enjoy Luncheon

LA HABRA, June 5.—Members of the Los Angeles Associate Masons' association were guests of the Orange County Associate Masons' association at a luncheon recently. More than 30 guests were seated at the luncheon tables which were decorated with blue delphinium and yellow corysops, carrying out the blue and yellow colors of the association.

Following the luncheon the regular business meeting was conducted by Alice Fagan, president of the Los Angeles organization and the lesson was conducted by Myra Moves, of Los Angeles, past grand matron.

'JERICHO' AND OIL FIRM ASKS 'HOOEY' FIRST. CITY TO DROP SECOND IN RACE WELL INTEREST

HUNTINGTON BEACH, June 5.—The city was asked to rescind its royalty interest in the Milroy oil well on Seventeenth street in order to prevent further litigation at the well and that the royalty owners might enjoy their income from the well without any further injunctions by the state, when the city council met last night. The request was made by Judge C. P. Patton.

This matter was held over until a future meeting, the council asking that Milroy Oil company ask for an indemnity bond against any litigation. Attorney Len Blodgett and Judge Bush might instigate against the city if it ended the lawsuit. It is understood Blodgett and Bush, attorneys for the city in the case, wish to push the case to a decision before the supreme court as a test case.

To Sign With State Mayor Tom Talbert stated that the oil company wished to sign up to pay the state a royalty and that all the oil companies were lining up with the state and litigation was nearing an end. He said there was nothing left to fight for as the oil companies themselves preferred to settle with the state and he felt the entire litigation should be dropped.

The matter will be finally decided at the meeting of the council set for June 12 and it is considered likely that the city will deed its interest in the royalty of the Milroy well back to the property owners and withdraw from the case if it is legally possible to do so.

The council voted $800 to help pay expenses of the Fourth of July celebration to be held here and for which an elaborate program is being arranged, celebrating the 25th anniversary of the incorporation of the city.

Card Permit Denied The proprietor of the Huston pool hall asked permission to operate card games in his pool hall. He was informed by Mayor Talbert that the state, county and city ordinances prohibited gambling and that while there was no law against card playing, if any gambling was done with cards then there would be law violation with consequent punishment.

It was stated that if he was not permitted to play cards he would try to stop card games at social functions.

J. T. Meeks, owner of Shetland ponies, wanted to operate a riding concession but when he learned the license would be $12 he left the council chamber without waiting for the permit, saying, "The children do not have many nickels to spend and they want a dime's worth for every nickel and there will be no money to advance for a license."

The Business Men's association and the chamber of commerce both wrote letters to the council complaining of oil flowing from the oil field to the beach. The council instructed the street department to keep a close watch on the situation and to prosecute any person or firm responsible for permitting oil to flow into the storm sewers and out on the beach.

Salaries Raised Constable Gail Bergery's appointment as a police officer was confirmed. The salary of Jack Tinsley, police officer, was raised from $109 a month to $150 a month and the salary of Owen Mosier, desk sergeant, was raised from $109 a month to $125 a month. The resignation of W. G. Hunter from the police force was accepted.

W. T. H. Holmsbach was appointed a special policeman without pay to work as a beach watchman for the Huntington Beach company. T. C. Vincent was appointed a special policeman without pay to work as a watchman at the baseball park.

A letter from Earl Lee Kelley director of public works, said the state would accept Ocean boulevard from Forty-fifth to Twenty-third street as a state highway, recognizing the interest of the Carr Oil company in the street by right of an oil lease, the validity of which is being contested in court by the Standard Oil company.

The council then authorized the state to hold back $800 out of the gas tax due this city, the money to be applied in repairs on Hampshire avenue, which street the state also takes over as a highway and work on which will start next week, it was stated.

Machine Purchased A truck was purchased from the Terry garage. Fire Chief Sargent was authorized to purchase 500 feet of hose for the fire department. City Engineer Overmeyer presented the plans for improvements at the municipal beach camp ground, a CWA project. The plans were approved and commended by the council and application made to the state for federal funds to complete the work. The council approved the bills for the current month and adjourned to meet again June 13.

Newport Beach City Budget Increased To $125,620

CHAMBER GETS $1500. VOTE ON PARK TAX DUE

NEWPORT BEACH, June 5.—An increase of $5000 in the city budget for 1934-1935 was voted by the city council last night when the board approved the new budget, calling for an expenditure of $125,620 in the coming year. The city spent $120,000, $3000 over the budget, in the past year.

The increase was caused in part by a change in city policy in regard to employment in some departments, it having been decided to change the fire department and police department from a five-day to a six-day week, with a consequent increase in salary. There was a marked increase in the appropriations for electrical department, city hall, per maintenance and the appropriation for the city judge. In order to lessen the salary increase caused by the six-day week in some instances, it was decided to place the fire chief, police chief and heads of some departments on a monthly salary following a motion to that effect by Councilman Elsworth.

An appropriation of $2000 was voted the parks committee for the following year. Councilman Clair voiced that opinion that a raise in park taxes to take up the slack there, from three cents to five cents, would probably be necessary, and it was decided to refer the matter to the voters at the next city election. It was decided to appoint a special advisory committee to the parks committee of the council to assist in planning for the coming year.

The sum of $1500 was voted the chamber of commerce for expenditure on the Tournament of Lights, scheduled for July 24. All other bills payable by the chamber of commerce for advertising and promotional expenditures will be handled through the advertising committee of the council. It was stated. A petition from the chamber asking for approximately $5000 for its advertising fund for the coming year was read, and with the exception of the tournament of lights appropriation, referred to the council finance and advertising committees for report.

The petition asked for $150 for surfboard contests, $100 for Christmas decorations, $250 for the Tournament of Roses, $1020 for the chamber of commerce fund and $175 for a fishing contest. In addition to the $1500 request, which was granted.

A motion to amend the existing ordinance prohibiting the loading of passengers in traffic zones was passed, to allow the Red Top Cab company operating in the city, to install cab loading stations in Newport and Balboa.

Buildings on Marine avenue in Balboa, which encroach on city property, and have long been the subject of controversy, will be moved this week by City Engineer R. L. Patterson, according to instructions given him by the city council.

Owners of the property, which consists of the Richardson and Dromgold garages, and adjoining buildings, received instructions to have the property moved by May 1, and have not done so as yet, it was declared. The city will saw the buildings off and assess the property owners for the work, under the city ordinance covering the abatement of nuisances.

BOARD OF JUDGES PICKING JURORS FOR LIQUOR TRIAL

The city of Laguna Beach, asking the county supervisors today to appropriate an amount from the county's gas tax fund for completing a gap in the Coast highway at Laguna Beach, was advised that the county has no funds available or in sight for such allocation.

In last year's budget, the sum of $50,000 had been provided for this particular improvement, to assist Laguna Beach with the share of the expense it was to stand, under agreement with the state highway commission. The appropriation, however, was not used, as nothing was done with the project at that time.

At the start of the current fiscal year, when the gas tax distribution was changed, so that the cities received direct from the state an allocation of 1-4 cent, taken from the county's share, the supervisors were of necessity, they explained to the Laguna Beach delegation today, forced to cease their practice of allocating gas tax funds to the cities on the former basis.

However, feeling that the 1-4 cent distribution to the cities was not equitable, the board adopted a policy of appropriating a certain portion of the county's share of the gas tax to the various cities, based upon population and assessed valuation.

Mayor Frank Champion, who headed the Laguna Beach delegation today, was informed, therefore, that the county is appropriating $1859.50 to Laguna Beach this year. This will supplement the $2200 that the city expects to receive direct from the state.

Chairman Willard Smith told Mayor Champion that he frankly did not see where the money could come from for the appropriation asked.

Superior W. C. Jerome pointed out that the $16,000,000 in federal road money given to California last year, for the counties, was kept by the state highway commission. The state probably will get about a fourth of that amount this year, he said.

He also reminded the delegation that the large sums now being borrowed by the county from the state for relief purposes, must all be repaid, and that the board accordingly has to trim its sails with respect to all forms of expenditures "against the day of reckoning."

Superior Jeffrey made known amounts of the county gas tax fund allocated to other cities of his district, including $1245.18 to Newport Beach; $562.64 to San Clemente, and $407.23 to Tustin. Chairman Smith allocated $3711.32 to Orange, in his district. These allocations, he explained, are not board allocations, but come from the individual supervisors, who may expend the money within the city limits, or turn it over to the cities for expenditure by them.

The section of Coast highway in question covers 1.1 miles at the eastern edge of Laguna Beach.

Following his peculiar actions in the Jefferson school yesterday and his subsequent arrest near the Santa Ana river after being pursued by police, Elmer Colegrove, 28, Long Beach grocery clerk, was booked at the county jail yesterday afternoon on investigation of being a fugitive from justice.

Police were called by Principal A. L. Glines of the school to investigate a man loitering near the school. Surprised in the halls of the school, the man ran to his car and disappeared before Motorcycle Officer B. A. Hershey arrived. It was then learned that the man had been arrested at least two sixth grade girls during the past three weeks.

While Hershey was talking to Principal Glines, a woman saw the suspect going west on Seventeenth street and notified the officer, who took up the pursuit. He was forced to travel nearly 80 miles per hour to overtake the car at a point a mile west of the Santa Ana river, when the man jumped from his car and ran into an orange orchard. Hershey called for police reinforcements and Colegrove was later found hiding under a grapevine in the grove.

No former police record could be found on Colegrove and his charge was dropped to reckless driving. He was to be arraigned in police court today on that charge.

MISS KIRCHNER WINS SCHOOL SPEECH EVENT

In the final round of the public speaking contest, in which 16 young people vied for honors Gloria Kirchner of Julia Lathrop junior high school won first place, and Grace Haney of St. Joseph's school, second place, it was announced today.

Miss Kirchner chose as her subject, "America's Dishonest Lawyers," while Miss Haney discussed "Kidnaping." John Hill spoke on "City Government," and Ellery Gaeb on "Youth and The Next War." The four had won first places in the semi-finals.

All the finalists were warmly complimented by the three judges Mrs. Iva Webber, Ferris Scott and Frank Landsdown.

Mrs. Dorothy Pitman presided as chairman and at the conclusion of the contest presented Miss Kirchner with a fountain pen presented by the three teachers sponsoring the affair, Miss Lota Blythe, Mrs. Grace Stephens and Mrs. Pitman.

BURGLAR TAKES FURS, JEWELS WORTH $7000

Believed to be one of Orange county's largest residence burglaries in recent years, the loss of $7000 in jewelry and furs from the home of Edward P. Backs, orange grower and land owner living on South Kraemer road, Placentia, was reported to sheriff's officers yesterday.

The Backs home was entered Saturday or Sunday while the family was away from home and was not discovered until Monday morning. An investigation showed that the house was entered after a window screen had been pried off on a rear bedroom and the glass broken with a bar so the lock could be unlatched. Lack of footprints led officers to believe that the thief left by the front or back door.

The only article of clothing taken was a Russian ermine coat, valued at $1500. There were missing, including a pair of jewelry, a diamond ring and a platinum bracelet with 55 small diamonds, diamond ring with platinum mounting and 22 small diamonds set in it, platinum dinner ring, man's watch, ring with 24 diamonds, two jade bracelets, two lady's gold watches, platinum bar pin, two bracelets, four stickpins and several rings.

Most of the jewelry was insured, it was learned.

A neighbor told officers that he heard a dog at the Backs home barking about 9 o'clock Sunday night, which is believed to be the time when the intruder was at the house.

Deputy Sheriffs G. F. McKelvey, James Musick and R. R. Lutes are investigating the burglary.

Judge Scovel recently took under submission a $73,000 accounting suit filed against the same company by George Fowler and others, charging erroneous methods of testing and sampling oil, which allegedly resulted in underpayment of oil and gas royalties.

Three men charged with drunken driving appeared in justice court yesterday afternoon and today, two for the setting of preliminary examinations and one to have his hearing.

Fernando Flores was arraigned in justice court yesterday, when his preliminary hearing set for June 11 at 9 a. m. and had bail fixed at $500. He was arrested Sunday after an accident on North Main street at Eleventh.

Antonio Valdez, was bound over to the superior court in court today, following testimony by California Highway Patrolman Horace Inge and Dr. James Farrage. Valdez was placed under $500 bail.

GERMAN WAR LORD TO BE SHACKLED

"Berlin restricts amount of Ordinary goods to be imported to 5 per cent of the 1930 total," says the headline in a special news story from Germany to the New York Times. Turning to the financial page another story reveals the fact that the gold reserve serving as a basis for German money has dropped to 4 1-2 per cent and that her holdings of foreign currencies have dropped to a new low. Talk of a German moratorium creep more frequently into financial stories regarding Germany and the world is being appraised as gently as possible that a severe financial crisis may develop in Europe.

Germany's gold reserve is vanishing because her foreign trade is vanishing, and her foreign trade is vanishing because she is persecuting the Jews, fomenting war and preparing for war, failing to pay debts that were incurred for her own restoration, and because of the insults Hitler so liberally hurls at the Russians.

The action of the German government in so severely restricting imports is of course a desperate effort to maintain her currency, to avoid inflation. It is also a confession that other nations are refusing to buy from her as they formerly did. This peace time silent and determined boycott Germany is to be 95 per cent effective according to the decrees of the Germans themselves.

Hitler may persecute the Jews, insult the Russians, cause the people of other nations to tremble in fear as he rattles the sabre but unless he makes a decided effort to win the friendship of the world business in Germany will again collapse. No nation has as yet been able to do business on a strictly paper basis, and Germany is rapidly approaching that basis.

The boycott is preventing Hitler from acquiring those raw materials which his country so desperately needs if it is to engage in modern warfare. This silent and determined boycott is proving and will prove a far stronger force in keeping Germany on peaceful terms with her neighbors than all the disarmament agreements that she might be willing to entertain. It is also taking some of the bluster out of the noisome Hitler who must some day beg the world to buy German goods if his people are not to suffer a still lower standard of living.

More than 500 newspapers have been discontinued since Hitler took office. The best of these voluntarily suspended when they were denied the right to print facts as they knew them. With nothing but the party press and corrupted newspapers available for civic enlightenment it is small wonder that the nation is drifting from bad to worse. And yet the best thing that could happen for the peace of the world is the economic isolation of Germany so long as she feels herself unable to abide by the rules of civilized society. The boycott of German goods will force Germany along the ways of peace.

DENOUEMENTS

Those who saw "Lightnin'" recall how the "old man" put over a big scene by pressing his innocent little "device" into the corner of his coat pocket so that it resembled a revolver, consequently he had things all his own way. It made an amazing scene but the literal minded probably had their reservations about it. From Paris comes an even stranger story which actually happened, about M. Bernard who is a French writer of mystery books. He had been entertaining audiences at the Grand Guignol Theatre by representing horrors to them. Sunday a boy on the street turned the tables on M. Bernard, with a tragic end. The boy shoved a paint brush before the nose of the author who probably mistook it for a revolver for he collapsed from the shock and died at the hospital in the evening. We are sorry about the end of Mr. Bernard.

The story does remind us, however, of a little dog we read of once who was accustomed to bark ferociously at passersby and dogs who were outside of the fence which enclosed him in his home yard. Every morning that dog, with venom darting out from the end of every hair, raced along the fence, ferociously tried to get through the gate and finally after the object of his hatred had passed, impatiently calmed down to await the dawn of another day. And then one day the gate was open when the little dog got there and the way was open for him to pounce upon his victim. The little dog fell over in a faint.

OLD RACKETS STILL NEW

United States bankers have lately received a request asking them to verify the listing of their bank and its officials in a German bank directory. Accompanying the request was a statement printed in German which many signers took to be a statement declaring that the bank and its officials were properly listed. Now it is discovered that the statement was an agreement to pay for a series of advertisements to appear in a German directory.

Rather than be exposed as having been "done by cheap crooks working an old racket," many signers will doubtless pay the demands made upon them. No one, least of all a banker, wants the world to know that he signed something he didn't understand. In the ordinary course of events not only is a sucker born every minute as Barnum would say, but a stream of inexperienced men and women is constantly moving into positions of power and trust and is being educated in the school of hard knocks, experience and humiliation. If you signed one of the old lightning rod swindle contracts, or any other piece of paper, through which you lost a bit of money, you can now bask in the warmth of that cheerful reflection that there are others who get "caught" also and that some of the company is quite good.

HOW PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT RATES HIS PREDECESSORS

In his speech at Gettysburg on Memorial Day, President Roosevelt took occasion to refer to some of his predecessors in the presidential office by name. It is to be said that his list was not a partisan list. In it, of course, was Washington. Though conservative in his general attitude, he was identified with no political party. Next comes Jefferson, the patron saint of the Democratic party. No one can dispute Jefferson's high place in our history. As the writer of the Declaration of Independence, and the foremost advocate in the early days of the rule of the people, he deserves a high place in our history.

Then follows Andrew Jackson. Jackson was a vigorous personality who bestrode his country with his power; but history will give no large place to Jackson as a constructive force in American history. He was a salutary influence as a people's man; but there the case for Jackson ends. A long leap carries the president to Lincoln, who shares with Washington an immortal fame as the preserver of the union of the states as well as the leader in a great civil conflict. Next comes Theodore Roosevelt in the president's list. Like Jackson, he was a vigorous personality and fought successfully against the powerful forces of big business and in defense of the common man. But he was not a great constructive force. Last comes Woodrow Wilson. Wilson did a valiant constructive work in his first administration in the organization of the Federal Reserve bank and the Federal Trade commission. His second administration will always provoke differences of opinion. His entry into the war, from which so much was expected and which left the world with problems still baffling the nations, will always be looked upon by many as a mistake; and his noble vision of a world of nations leagued for peace has been all but shattered today.

Yet, in the main, the president's list appeals to us. Among them are what might be called three Republicans, Washington, Lincoln and Roosevelt; and three Democrats, Jefferson, Jackson and Wilson. Ogden Mills might list Washington and Lincoln. He might include Theodore Roosevelt, but he doubt it. He certainly would not include Jefferson, Jackson, or Wilson. We rather detect in the president's list a desire to broaden his party so as to include the type of men and women who look with favor upon the general qualities and attitudes of these outstanding national leaders.

BRITAIN WRITES A NOTE

The news event of the day is Britain's note to the United States government in which she states her refusal to pay at that time the debt payment due June 15 and the explanation which accompanied the statement of fact that there would be no payment forthcoming the middle of this month. The size of the figures reminds us of the employe in a current book of fiction who was employed by his very rich employer simply to enter in the books the proper number of zeroes following the initial digits in the books of the employer, so that the millions and billions would be kept straight.

One of the most potent arguments for making the nations pay the sums owing the United States from the Great War has been the rearming of Europe. Countries reinvesting in armaments had little defence for failure to pay for their last war, when they were spending large sums to rearm. Not to pay for the old war while preparing for a new one was distastefully illogical from the standpoint of the creditor nation. Even though the creditor nation might itself be spending riotously for arms.

However, we have no reason to believe that Great Britain wants a war today, any more than we do in this country, in fact quite the contrary may be the case. We are told that the peace movement in Britain is much stronger than it is here, particularly among the young people.

The note from Britain is the forerunner of many and lengthy controversies in which the "man on the street" will be at the mercy of the experts in high finance for it is all terribly complicated.

By and large the question for the people to decide in assuming an attitude on the debt Britain owes this country is whether or not the "pound of flesh attitude" will pay them in the long run and whether the trade sacrificed by such an attitude would not be worth more than the money which might be forced from Britain.

William Pries, Hero

Oakland Tribune

Usually when a police officer is called upon to face a great danger, events are moving rapidly and the issue is his life or that of a criminal.

When William Pries, Alameda officer, did Wednesday night exemplified courage and keen wits. Pries deliberately undertook to be a riding companion to sudden death that he might remove from a contested district a crazed man bearing enough dynamite to cause widespread destruction.

Hearing the man's story and knowing that a twitch of his wrist might explode a load of dynamite and nitro-glycerine, Policeman Pries reasoned with the desperate occupant of the death car, persuaded him to drive to a secluded place and throughout the journey stood on the running board of an automobile which, at any second, might have been ripped to fragments by terrific concussion.

That ride on the running board was a conspicuous act of bravery. It was one to test the nerve not in a second of emergency but through continued ordeal, and it was one done for the protection of fellow citizens. There is no one who envies William Pries that journey with dynamite, but his community and all who read the story join in commending him and are thankful he had the courage and the wits to prevent what might have been a death-dealing explosion.

More Truth Than Poetry

A LAY OF LOYALTY

I am not hero-minded.
My pulses never stir
The while I gaze
At picture plays
Concerning him and her.
The plots that entertained me
Perhaps were not so smart;
They were the rough
And lurid stuff
Portrayed by Old Bill Hart.

Old Bill was not appealing
As are the Barrymores,
His scenes were cast
On mesas vast
Amid the Great Outdoors,
But when he rode his broncho
And shot and shot and shot,
While rustlers fell
Down cliffs pellmell,
Oh Boy! but he was hot!

His form was long and rangy,
His face almost as long;
He always got
With one sure shot
Whoever done him wrong.
It may be that his acting
Was not exactly smart,
But just the same
I sing the name
Of Old Bill Hart.

THE REST OF THE WORLD AND RECOVERY

I hear increasingly—as I share in or unintentionally eavesdrop conversation at luncheon tables or in the club cars of trains—about the way in which all the rest of the world is recovering without resort to the sort of New Deal remedies we have compounded.

What are the facts? I have just scanned the factual summaries of a League of Nations study of world recovery. And here are some pertinent facts we should all have in mind before we jump to conclusions.

The various nations reached the depth of the depression as follows:

France, Sweden, Austria and the United States in July, 1932.
Germany in August, 1932.
Great Britain in September, 1932.

Canada in February, 1933.

The various nations had crawled up, percentage speaking, from the depth of the depression as follows by January, 1934:

The United States 34 per cent.
Great Britain 27 per cent.
Germany 33 per cent.
Canada 39 per cent.
Sweden 34 per cent.
Austria 28 per cent.

Counting the losses the nations suffered between the highest prosperity point and the lowest depression point, the various nations have, percentage speaking, recovered their losses as follows:

The United States had, by January, 1934, recovered 29 per cent of her losses.

Great Britain 46 per cent of hers.

Germany 27 per cent of hers.

Canada 23 per cent of hers.

France 22 per cent of hers.

Japan 76 per cent of hers.

Comparing the industrial production at the end of 1933 with the industrial production of 1928, this is how the various nations stood:

Japan was 39 per cent above the 1928 level.

The United States had gone only 32 per cent of the way back to the 1928 level.

Great Britain, 92 per cent—but it should be recorded that 1928 was a very low year for Great Britain and a very high year for the United States.

France 40 per cent.

Germany 35 per cent.

Canada 43 per cent.

Here are pertinent facts to keep in mind as we attempt to judge how much natural forces and how much artificial governmental stimulation have to do with recovery.

BABIES' SHOES

Babies always have to have their first pair of shoes. It would be much more comfortable for him if he could stay barefooted but that has limitations soon reached and the shoes have to be forthcoming. They ought to be soft and easy, and long enough. A baby's foot is so soft and bunched that it is hard to fit. Fit it loosely and there will be less chance of his feeling pinched, or being pinched.

White ones are best. You see a baby sticks his foot in his mouth shoe and all. Not that we encourage him at all. This is one of the things he will do without any encouragement at all. Indeed he will do it in the face of the most strenuous protests. It doesn't matter if his shoes are clean. White ones show the dirt and can be washed when they need it. Colored ones are likely to have dyes and washes and polishes that might not be so good for the baby's stomach.

A baby was very sick at his stomach and nobody could understand why. His formula had been prepared with care. His feedings were strictly on time. Nothing had been omitted, nothing done that could account for the condition. Then somebody noticed his shoe. It was well chewed.

"What's on his shoes?" asked his mother in excitement.

"Oh, they were so dirty I gave them a coat of shoe polish," said his little auntie.

"My goodness. He's licked all the polish off. Run for the doctor. Maybe he's poisoned himself."

He hadn't. His stomach hadn't liked the polish and had promptly sent it back to where it came from. He was soon all over it. But it isn't wise to polish his shoes until he has ceased to chew them.

In the warm summer days bare feet are comfortable. The baby likes to lie on his back and kick, spread out his toes and air them. He ought to have that exercise and freedom. Air and sunshine are good for feet and the baby needs all the comfort and help happy feet can give him. Cramped, bruised, aching feet can make the whole body one big suffering sore. Remember that and dress and undress the tender feet of a baby accordingly.

same watchful care of his feet. It is not easy to fit a child whose foot bunches up and spreads out unaccountably as the salesman struggles to fit the right pair to the squirming feet. One has to be patient and watchful. The child will say they feel all right just to get away. Any pair of shiny shoes pleases him until he starts going about in them and they hurt. Then he complains to high heaven and throws them away.

Guard against the raw edged stiff counters that some shoes have. The hard raw edge cuts into the child's foot and the pain is unbearable after a few minutes. Blisters are to be avoided and that means the stockings must fit smoothly, the shoes fit easily, without rubbing. If a blister comes take care of it. Take away the shoes that caused it. Rest the foot until it is healed and then guard against another one. Children's feet are tender. Their comfort spells comfort for the entire body. That in itself is worth considering.

(Mr. Patri will give personal attention to inquiries from parents and school teachers on the care and development of children. Write him in care of this paper, enclosing a three-cent stamped, addressed envelope for reply.)

GERMAN WAR LORD TO BE SHACKLED

"Berlin restricts amount of Ordinary goods to be imported to 5 per cent of the 1930 total," says the headline in a special news story from Germany to the New York Times. Turning to the financial page another story reveals the fact that the gold reserve serving as a basis for German money has dropped to 4 1-2 per cent and that her holdings of foreign currencies have dropped to a new low. Talk of a German moratorium creep more frequently into financial stories regarding Germany and the world is being appraised as gently as possible that a severe financial crisis may develop in Europe.

Germany's gold reserve is vanishing because her foreign trade is vanishing, and her foreign trade is vanishing because she is persecuting the Jews, fomenting war and preparing for her own restoration, and because of the insults Hitler so liberally hurls at the Russians.

The action of the German government in so severely restricting imports is of course a desperate effort to maintain her currency, to avoid inflation. It is also a confession that other nations are refusing to buy from her as they formerly did. This peace time silent and determined boycott against Germany is to be 95 per cent effective according to the decrees of the Germans themselves.

Hitler may persecute the Jews, insult the Russians, cause the people of other nations to tremble in fear as he rattles the sabre but unless he makes a decided effort to win the friendship of the world business in Germany will again collapse. No nation has as yet been able to do business on a strictly paper basis, and Germany is rapidly approaching that basis.

The boycott is preventing Hitler from acquiring those raw materials which his country so desperately needs if it is to engage in modern warfare. This silent and determined boycott is proving and will prove a far stronger force in keeping Germany on peaceful terms with her neighbors than all the disarmament agreements that she might be willing to entertain. It is also taking some of the bluster out of the noisome Hitler who must some day beg the world to buy German goods if his people are not to suffer a still lower standard of living.

More than 500 newspapers have been discontinued since Hitler took office. The best of these voluntarily suspended when they were denied the right to print facts as they knew them. With nothing but the party press and corrupted newspapers available for civic enlightenment it is small wonder that the nation is drifting from bad to worse. And yet the best thing that could happen for the peace of the world is the economic isolation of Germany so long as she feels herself unable to abide by the rules of civilized society. The boycott of German goods will force Germany along the ways of peace.

DENOUEMENTS

Those who saw "Lightnin'" recall how the "old man" put over a big scene by pressing his innocent little "device" into the corner of his coat pocket so that it resembled a revolver, consequently he had things all his own way. It made an amazing scene but the literal minded probably had their reservations about it. From Paris comes an even stranger story which actually happened, about M. Bernard who is a French writer of mystery books. He had been entertaining audiences at the Grand Guignol Theatre by representing horrors to them. Sunday a boy on the street turned the tables on M. Bernard, with a tragic end. The boy showed a paint brush before the nose of the author who probably mistook it for a revolver for he collapsed from the shock and died at the hospital in the evening. We are sorry about the end of Mr. Bernard.

The story does remind us, however, of a little dog we read of once who was accustomed to bark ferociously at passersby and dogs who were outside of the fence which enclosed him in his home yard. Every morning that dog, with venom darting out from the end of every hair, raced along the fence, ferociously tried to get through the gate and finally after the object of his hatred had passed, impatiently calmed down to await the dawn of another day. And then one day the gate was open when the little dog got there and the way was open for him to pounce upon his victim. The little dog fell over in a faint.

OLD RACKETS STILL NEW

United States bankers have lately received a request asking them to verify the listing of their bank and its officials in a German bank directory. Accompanying the request was a statement printed in German which many signers took to be a statement declaring that the bank and its officials were properly listed. Now it is discovered that the statement was an agreement to pay for a series of advertisements to appear in a German directory.

Rather than be exposed as having been "done by cheap crooks working an old racket," many signers will doubtless pay the demands made upon them. No one, least of all a banker, wants the world to know that he signed something he didn't understand. In the ordinary course of events not only is a sucker born every minute as Barnum would say, but a stream of inexperienced men and women is constantly moving into positions of power and trust and is being educated in the school of hard knocks, experience and humiliation. If you signed one of the old lightning rod swindle contracts, or any other piece of paper, through which you lost a bit of money, you can now bask in the warmth of that cheerful reflection that there are others who get "caught" also and that some of the company is quite good.

The runabout child needs the same watchful care of his feet. It is not easy to fit a child whose foot bunches up and spreads out unaccountably as the salesman struggles to fit the right pair to the squirming feet. One has to be patient and watchful. The child will say they feel all right just to get away. Any pair of shiny shoes pleases him until he starts going about in them and they hurt. Then he complains to high heaven and throws them away. Guard against the raw edged stiff counters that some shoes have. The hard raw edge cuts into the child's foot and the pain is unbearable after a few minutes. Blisters are to be avoided and that means the stockings must fit smoothly, the shoes fit easily, without rubbing. If a blister comes take care of it. Take away the shoes that caused it. Rest the foot until it is healed and then guard against another one. Children's feet are tender. Their comfort spells comfort for the entire body. That in itself is worth considering.
